ESTUATE

Estuate caters to the data growth demands of Emirates Flight Catering Emirates Flight Catering is an inflight catering service company based in Dubai, United Arab Emirates. The company serves over 50 million meals per year. With a production capacity of more than 115,000 meals per day, it's the largest facility of its kind in the world.

1. Business Challenge

Emirates Flight Catering was being pulled down by some key data growth challenges. They realized that:

- Their production data was adding up to 40GB every month, and was expected to rise to 60GB in future

- Their existing JD Edwards application was showing significant performance degradation

- They were losing track of historical data for analysis and audit purposes
