you have any relevant unspent criminal convictions? Yes LI NO LI

Relevant means offences against the person, whether of a violent or sexual nature, and convictions involving unlawful supplying or possession of controlled drugs or substances. If you declare that you have a conviction, you will be asked to complete a separate information sheet. This is to help us assess any potential risk to yourself or others. Having a criminal record will not necessarily prevent you studying. This will depend on the course you choose and the circumstances of the offence. If you do not disclose a relevant conviction, which is ultimately discovered, this could result in you being excluded.

How we use your personal information This privacy notice is issued by the Education and Skills Funding Agency (ESFA), on behalf of the Secretary of State for the Department of Education (DfE). It is to inform learners how their personal information will be used by the DfE, the ESFA (an executive agency of the DfE) and any successor bodies to these organisations. This will only take place where the law allows it and the sharing is in compliance with GDPR. All information gathered by this form in necessary to enrol you on the desired course. You may exercise the right to have your information withdrawn after the completion of your course. The English European Social Fund (ESF) Managing Authority (or agents acting on its behalf) may contact you in order for them to carry out research and evaluation to inform the effectiveness of training. I understand any breaches of these may result in disciplinary action being taken against me and my learning agreement terminated. I understand that it is my responsibility to pay the fees for my course(s) unless I meet the concessionary criteria or have funding from another source. I accept that where it has been agreed that I may pay my fees by instalments, I shall make payments due in full and on time, and that TrainPlus will pursue late or non-payment of fees. Except in respect of death or personal injury caused by TrainPlus' negligence, TrainPlus' total liability to me, whether in contract, tort, negligence, breach of statutory duty or otherwise, shall not exceed the amount of fees paid to TrainPlus by me or on my behalf of in the academic year in which the circumstances leading to my claim arise.
