ABOUT

Stoddard's Range and Guns offers best-in-class shooting ranges and retail stores, conveniently located in West Midtown Atlanta and Douglasville.

Tired of the same old doldrum meetings? Give your team something different and take a shot at Stoddard's.

Stoddard's is a one-of-a-kind space, like nothing you have ever seen before. Both locations are within five minutes of the major hotels and conference centers in both cities.

Additional Information

Meetings

We have ideal options to hold your next boardroom meeting or small conference. Stocked with plenty of seating, breakout rooms and modern A/V capabilities, we are certain our venues will make an impression.

Corporate

Stoddard's offers inspiring and memorable team building activities and creative workshops tailored to meet your needs. Let us help inspire your next event.

Team Building

Your employees are the biggest asset to your company. We offer a venue that's ideal for a unique experience that will grow brand loyalty and strong camaraderie.

Filming

The enhanced interior and lighting of Stoddard's is a perfect location for filming and photoshoots. Combining modern and industrial, our venues provide a unique backdrop.

Food & Beverage

Our third-party partners can provide catering for events. Alternative catering can also be used, subject to agreement. Bartending events need further discussion and are subject to restrictions.

Dress Code

Eye and ear protection is required and is included in event package pricing. Additional purchasing may apply. Attendees should wear closed-toe shoes.

Safety

Safety is our number one concern. Event groups are required to go through a safety brief before range activities to ensure everyone understands the range rules.

Security

For events open to the public, it is mandatory to hire security depending on attendees, type of event, and rooms booked. For evening events, we may require the presence of a hired security officer.

Transportation

We can also provide safe and convenient third-party transportation options for guests, like private shuttles to ensure that everyone arrives on time and safely.

A/V Equipment

We have access to a wide range of audio, visual, and additional resources available to hire for your event.

See room details for more information.

BEGINNERS

Not familiar with shooting? You'll be in good company.

---

Shooting a gun for the first time (or any time!) can be an intimidating experience. Stoddard's takes this seriously, and is proud to deliver a unique, inclusive atmosphere.

Stoddard's is a top destination for new shooters, with an estimated 60% of our annual visitors having little-to-no experience.
