Introduction

Our Nepal comfort treks offer a lodge-based alternative to a traditional camping trek. On these extended treks in the Nepali Himalaya, you will stay in heated lodges and en-suite guesthouses, suitable for couples and families travelling with children. Our comfort programmes are gentle by Himalayan standards – you trek at a relaxed pace (typically 4-5 hours trekking per day), and to a max altitude of 4,000m. For the leisurely traveller who is looking to explore the beauty of the Nepali Himalayas but is put off by the Spartan conditions associated with camping-based treks, our comfort treks provide the ideal alternative.

Our Nepal comfort programmes are organised in partnership with Ker & Downey Nepal. We are a UK agent for Ker & Downey and can provide very competitive rates on all K&D itineraries.

Day 5: Trek to Sanctuary Lodge, Birethanti (3750ft / 1150m)

After breakfast, we leave the Himalaya Lodge walking out through the village of Ghandruk. Buffaloes and goats graze in the surrounding fields and you may have to make way for the donkey and mule trains that convey goods to and from the Gurkha settlements. We continue descending for 2–3 hours until we reach Shauli Bazaar. From here, we follow along the Modi River until we reach the Sanctuary Lodge. We'll have lunch at the lodge followed by another opportunity to walk to the village of Birethanti. Alternatively, you may choose to spend the afternoon relaxing by the river bank.

This is a little used trail that starts off on a rocky path along the river bank and then meanders through a forested area. We soon reach a winding stone staircase which we climb. After about ½ an hour on the stair case, we reach level ground at a small farming hamlet on a ridge. We trek along this ridge to the village of Waday. From Waday there are far reaching views of the whole valley. Our trek then descends a short distance to a small but sturdy suspension bridge. After crossing this bridge, we have another uphill push, passing through the small villages of Patlekhet and Majgaun, before arriving at the Gurung Lodge in time for lunch. Trek time: 3-4 hours.

After lunch, you may choose to hike with your guide to the nearby village of Tanchok, where there is a traditional house now made into a museum. Day 7: Trek to Basanta Lodge, Dhampus (5000ft / 1525m)

Along the way, we will stop at the village of Pothana where many Tibetan traders live and sell their souvenirs. After about 3.5 hours, we arrive at the Basanta Lodge. From the lodge, there are sweeping views of the entire Annapurna Range. After lunch at the lodge there will be an optional walk through the old village of Dhampus.

Annapurna Base Camp Trek

Outline

The Annapurna Sanctuary is a high glacial basin lying north of Pokhara. Situated below a ring of eleven of Nepal's major peaks, it has spectacular views of each of these giants. This magnificent amphitheatre is a region of stunning natural beauty, which is believed to be the home of the Hindu goddesses Annapurna and Gangapurna. One can sit in the Sanctuary meadows at 13,200ft / 4000m and take in the spectacle of these legendary mountains towering several kilometres above in all directions. This isolated cirque of peaks can only be approached by one route, a deep gorge that carves into the fortress of mountains between Machhapuchhre and Hiunchuli.

NB. This special trek combines the best lodges in the area, including Ker & Downey lodges, with the best available tea houses. The tea houses are much more basic than the Ker & Downey properties, and may lack facilities such as flush loos.

Day 1: Kathmandu (4265ft / 1300m)

Upon arrival you will be met and assisted by a local representative and transferred to the Gokarna Forest Resort. Gokarna Forest Resort, where you overnight.

Day 2: Fly Kathmandu - Pokhara (3080ft / 940m)

Transfer to the airport for the 30 minute flight to Pokhara, the city on the Lake. On arrival in Pokhara, you will be briefed on the trek ahead by your trek guide. This will also give you the chance to ask any last minute questions that you may have.

After the briefing, transfer by road with your guide & porters to the trek start point of Lumle (1-hour). The walk will follow a ridgeline in the lower foothills of the Annapurnas, with surrounding views of the Pokhara Valley. This route then drops to the Modi River Valley, where Ker & Downey's Sanctuary Lodge is located at 3470ft /1060 m. The lodge has magnificent views of the sacred and unclimbed Fishtail Mountain, or Machhapuchhre, as it is locally known. Lunch is at the lodge followed by an optional walk to the nearby village of Birethanti; alternatively, spend the afternoon exploring the surrounding river valley.

Trek time: 3 hours. Overnight at the Ker & Downey Sanctuary Lodge.

Day 3: Sanctuary Lodge - Himalaya Lodge (6,600ft / 2000m)

In the morning, leave the lodge walking out through the outlying farms following the Modi River Valley. Soon you begin to climb out of the valley & up towards the mountains. The trail passes through small hamlets, terraced rice fields and forests. Arrive in the afternoon at Himalaya Lodge in Ghandruk. From Himalaya Lodge, there are magnificent close up views of the surrounding mountains. Snacks are provided en route with a late lunch served at the lodge.

Trek time: 5 hours. Overnight at the Himalaya Lodge.

Day 4: Chomrong/Sanctuary "Gates" (7,120ft / 2170m)

Our trail heads steeply downhill to the Kyumnu Khola, a tributary of the Modi Khola, where we will stop for lunch. In the afternoon we climb to a ridgeline on the west bank of the Modi Khola, gaining a spectacular view of the Matterhorn-like spire of 23,000ft Machhapuchhre. We continue along to Chomrong, the last permanent village below the Annapurna Sanctuary, set at the base of Hiunchuli (20,782ft / 6300m).

Trek time: 5-6 hours. Overnight at a local lodge.

Day 5: Bamboo

Hiking through lush rhododendron forest festooned with ferns and orchids, we reach Kuldi Ghar, a small settlement perched on the steep-sided valley. We descend quickly across rock slabs into a bamboo forest. The trail continues through a dense bamboo forest, often over a tangle of roots and fallen bamboo that can be slippery when wet.

Trek time: 5-6 hours. Overnight at a local lodge.

Day 6: Bamboo-Deurali (10,597ft / 3230m)

Following the trail uphill then downhill through bamboo forest, we climb gradually but steadily until we emerge into the open spaces above the treeline. After hiking across a grassy pasture at Tomo (8,400ft / 2545m), we reach the narrowest point in the canyon, Panchenin Barha, the natural "gate" to the sanctuary, with its small trailside shrine. Before 1956, no one of low caste, including foreigners, and no "impure" foods such as pork, beef, chicken, garlic, and eggs were allowed beyond this shrine into the sacred confines of the Annapurna Sanctuary. Trek time: 4-5 hours. Overnight at a local lodge.

Day 7: Annapurna Base Camp (13,550ft / 4100m)

The gorge widens as we climb towards Hinko Cave, until finally the full glory of the Annapurna Sanctuary comes into view. Ahead of us lies the lateral moraine of South Annapurna Glacier, with the Modi Khola flowing to our right. We pass through the Machhapuchhre Base Camp (12,150ft / 3680m), site of a 1957 British Expedition to Machhapuchhre that climbed to within 200ft of the summit. Because the peak is sacred to the Gurung people and considered the home of a Gurung goddess, Nepal's government subsequently declared it off limits to climbers and it has remained unclimbed since. The trail then continues to Annapurna Base Camp and contours the broad, grassy, and sometimes snow-covered valley. When we reach base camp we are surrounded by a 360-degree panorama of incredible Himalayan peaks: Hiunchuli, Annapurna South, Fang, Annapurna II, Roc Noir, Glacier Dome, Gangapurna, Annapurna III, and Machhapuchhre.

Trek time: 4-5 hours. Overnight at a local lodge.

Day 8: Himalaya (9580ft / 2920m)

After we enjoy our last views of the Annapurna Sanctuary, we head out the "gate" and begin our descent to the Modi Khola Valley.

Trek time: 5-6 hours. Overnight at a local lodge.

Day 9: Sinuwa (7720ft / 2340m)

We have a number of steep ascents and descents today to Sinuwa, passing through spectacular Rhododendron and Bamboo forest.

Trek time: 5 hours. Overnight at a local lodge.

Day 10: Jhinu Danda (4950ft / 1500m)

We continue downhill, then detour off our former trail and head steeply down to the "New Bridge" on the Modi Khola. From here, the route flattens out somewhat until reaching the small settlement of lodges, known as Jhinu Danda. There is a small hot spring so bring a bathing suit if you'd like to take a dip!

Trek time: 5 hours. Overnight at a local lodge.

Day 11: Sanctuary Lodge (3080ft / 940m)

We join the main trail again today, trekking mainly along the flats until we reach the Sanctuary Lodge for a final night.

Trek time: 5 hours. Overnight at the Sanctuary Lodge.

Day 12: Kathmandu (4265ft / 1300m)

We walk down to the road head near Birethanti, and continue by private vehicle to Pokhara. Once back in Pokhara, we bid farewell to our trekking staff and return to Kathmandu by air. Upon arrival in Kathmandu, we'll visit Durbar Square. Kathmandu's Durbar Square was where the city's kings were once crowned and from where they ruled (durbar means 'palace'). As such, the square remains the traditional heart of the old town and Kathmandu's most impressive site. We'll then return to the hotel. The evening is free to enjoy a meal at a local restaurant or at the hotel.

Trek time: 1 hour. Overnight Gokarna Forest Resort.

Our trekking crew meets us at the Lukla airstrip where we'll spend a few minutes sorting out our kit before setting off through this winding village to the trek start proper at the Khumbu 'gateway'. It's gently downhill on pitched stone trails through low rhododendron forest, small 'garden' farms and old and new hamlets to the banks of the foaming Dudh Koshi River. There will be plenty of short stops to meet the locals, take photographs and just soak up the scenery and the clear mountain air as we meander along, the undulating trail glimpsing views of 6000m snow-capped peaks high above. Passing the enormous mani stone at Thado Kosi, we meander up through the many chortens and prayer wheels of Sano and along to our destination of YMH Phakding in time for a late lunch. A couple more hours of woodland trails and swaying bridges brings us to the small village of Monjo. Our lodge for the night is located above the village with spectacular views of Thamserku and Kusum Kangri. After lunch at lodge there's an opportunity to explore the side valleys and villages with your guide.

Trek time: 3 hours. Overnight at Yeti Mountain Home, Monjo.

A short walk from our lodge brings us to the gateway to the Sagarmatha National Park. Take a moment to stop and have a look at the interesting 3D map and information boards whilst our guide sorts out our permits and entry. From here we have another 40 minutes or so along the sides of the Dudh Khosi before crossing the Bhote Khosi, raging in from a side valley, and beginning our climb to the Sherpa capital of Namche Bazaar. The trail zig-zags up away from the river, gradually ascending to the tree line and opening out into a high mountain bowl and the vibrant village of Namche. We pass through the many tiny shops and colourful stalls, picking our way slowly up hand-cut stone steps to the wonderful Yeti Mountain Home Lodge. This is our first night above 3000m so it's important to take it easy and let your body adjust. Relax with a tea or coffee and maybe even take a massage in the spa.

Trek time: 5 hours. Overnight at Yeti Mountain Home, Namche.

Day 9: Namche

Today we'll take a gentle walk to gain a little height and then have the afternoon free to explore the shops and cafes of this delightful little town.

You should also be able to see the trails to Everest. If you're feeling energised we'll continue on to the delightful villages of Kumjung and Kunde with their health post and school, both started by the Sir Edmund Hilary Fund.

After lunch you are free to head down to the Namche market to browse the shops, chat to the locals and maybe pick up a souvenir or two. You may also see the Tibetan traders who make a yearly journey over the high passes from the Tibetan plateau with their yaks laden with goods to sell at the markets. Late in the afternoon there's an option to visit Namche Monastery. The monastery is about 80 years old and has beautiful Thangka paintings of Tibetan deities. You can burn a butterlamp for your loved ones.

Trek time: 5-6 hours. Overnight at Yeti Mountain Home, Lukla.

Day 13: Kathmandu

After enjoying a leisurely breakfast at the hotel, we'll be met by our guide for a day trip to a few of the Kathmandu Valley's most spectacular and important sights, as well as some vibrant, colourful markets.

A meld of three ancient capitals and their associated palaces, temples and markets, Kathmandu has a lot to offer culturally and historically. However, we're mindful not to overload you and so will ensure the day has a good balance between sightseeing, exploring and relaxation time.

The exact itinerary may change depending on the local conditions but we shall most likely visit:

- Pashupatinath, one of the most important temples to the Hindu God, Lord Shiva, in all of South Asia;
- One of the three Durbar (Palace) Squares, a complex of palaces and temples which was formally the social, religious and administrative focal point of the ancient city.
- Boudhnanath Stupa, a wonderful Buddhist site centred on a huge Stupa topped with the all-seeing eyes. If possible we'll come here in the early evening to soak up the atmosphere of hundreds of Tibetan and Sherpa peoples walking their devotional khora.

After an optional early morning flight to Mount Everest, we fly to Pokhara. There will be a pre-trip briefing in Pokhara before we transfer by road with guides and porters to our trek start point (1-hour). Our walk will follow a ridgeline in the lower foothills of the Annapurnas with surrounding views of the Pokhara Valley. This route then drops to the Modi River Valley, where our resting point for the night, the Sanctuary Lodge, is located. The lodge has magnificent views of the sacred and unclimbed Fishtail Mountain, or Machhapuchhre, as it is locally known. A picnic lunch is provided en route with an estimated late afternoon arrival.

Trek time: 3–4 hours. Overnight at the Sanctuary Lodge..

Day3: Trek to Himalaya Lodge, Ghandruk (6,600ft / 2012m)

After breakfast, we leave the lodge and start our walk through the surrounding farms as we follow the Modi River Valley. Soon we begin to climb out of the valley and up towards the mountains. The trail passes through small hamlets, terraced rice fields and forests with spectacular views of the surrounding valley. Snacks are provided along the trail. Hot lunch is served on arrival at the Himalaya Lodge in the early afternoon. From Himalaya Lodge there are magnificent views of the surrounding mountains.

Trek time: 5–6 hours. Overnight at the Himalaya Lodge.

Day 4: Himalaya Lodge

We wake up this morning with tea and coffee served in the garden and watch the sunrise over Annapurna South, Annapurna 1, Hiunchuli, Gangapurna, and Machhapuchhre. After enjoying a relaxing breakfast and the glorious views from the Himalaya Lodge, our guide will take us on an exploration of this mountain village and the surrounding countryside. Ghandruk was once a major recruitment centre for the famous Gurkha soldiers. The women of Ghandruk maintain a local industry of weaving traditional Nepalese rugs.

Overnight at the Himalaya Lodge.

Day 5: Trek to Sanctuary Lodge, Birethanti (3750ft / 1150m)

After breakfast, we leave the Himalaya Lodge walking out through the village of Ghandruk. Buffaloes and goats graze in the surrounding fields and you may have to make way for the donkey and mule trains that convey goods to and from the Gurkha settlements. We continue descending for 2–3 hours until we reach Shauli Bazaar. From here, we follow along the Modi River until we reach the Sanctuary Lodge. We'll have lunch at the lodge followed by another opportunity to walk to the village of Birethanti. Alternatively, you may choose to spend the afternoon relaxing by the river bank.

Overnight at the Sanctuary Lodge.

Day 6: Trek to Gurung Lodge, Majgaun (4620ft / 1400m)

Following a leisurely breakfast, we leave the Sanctuary lodge and trek to Gurung Lodge at 1,450 meters. We cross the bridge nearby the lodge and start heading up the Modi River. This is a little used trail that starts off on a rocky path along the river bank and then meanders through a forested area. We soon reach a winding stone staircase which we climb. After about ½ an hour on the stair case, we reach level ground at a small farming hamlet on a ridge. We trek along this ridge to the village of Waday. From Waday there are far reaching views of the whole valley. Our trek then descends a short distance to a small but sturdy suspension bridge. After crossing this bridge, we have another uphill push, passing through the small villages of Patleket and Majgaun, before arriving at the Gurung Lodge in time for lunch. Trek time: 3-4 hours.

After lunch, you may choose to hike with your guide to the nearby village of Tanchok, where there is a traditional house now made into a museum. The contents of the house illustrate how the local people live, with the tools and implements of day to day traditional village life on display. You may also choose to visit the local school. Trek time: 1-2 hours.

Overnight at the Gurung Lodge.

Day 7: Trek to Basanta Lodge, Dhampus (5000ft / 1525m)

This morning we start out trekking through the unspoiled village of Patleket. Our walk takes us through sub-tropical forests that include tree orchids, rhododendrons and magnolias. Along the way, we will stop at the village of Pothana where many Tibetan traders live and sell their souvenirs. After about 3.5 hours, we arrive at the Basanta Lodge. From the lodge, there are sweeping views of the entire Annapurna Range. After lunch at the lodge there will be an optional walk through the old village of Dhampus.

Overnight at the Basanta Lodge.

Day 8: Trek to Pokhara (3300ft / 1000m)

After breakfast, we depart along the ridge and descend through the wooded hillside and terraced farmland to the valley floor. Trek time 1.5 hours. We then transfer by vehicle to the Shangri-La Village Resort in Pokhara (30 minutes). On the way back to Pokhara, the vehicle can stop on request at the Tibetan refugee camp where you will have time to explore the temple complex. We'll arrive at the Shangri-La Village in time for lunch. The rooms at the Shangri-La are filled with ethnic touches. Surrounding the rooms are spacious, landscaped gardens, water features, a swimming pool and stunning views of the surrounding mountains. The rest of the afternoon is free to explore the lakeside where most of Nepal's Tibetan curio shops are located. In the evening, enjoy dinner at a local restaurant.

Overnight at the Shangri-La Village Resort.

Day 9: Seti River Camp (1000ft / 300m)

This morning we transfer to Damauli, a journey of some 1½ hours through the countryside. Here we will be met by our experienced boat crew, who will give us a full briefing prior to launch. The Seti River has no road access and so the river and surrounding valley remain pristine. Floating down the river gives us a chance to see village life along the banks as well as the abundant variety of birds. There will be a picnic lunch on a sandy beach on the way to the camp. Today, there are 2 small rapids of no more than grade 2 and are no longer than 165ft / 50m. The remainder of the trip is very much a float experience. Upon arrival, you will be shown to your safari style tent with beds, changing room, veranda, and attached bathroom. Rafting time: 2 to 3 hours, depending on water levels.

Overnight at Seti River Camp.

Day 10: Seti River Camp (1000ft / 300m)

Today we will have a layover day at the Seti River Camp. This second day allows us time to truly relax. In the morning we'll hike through surrounding forests to remote nearby villages, where very few tourists go. Lunch is at the camp. The afternoon is free to explore the landscaped gardens, riverbank, or just relax in a hammock or tree house. The evening is spent around an open fire of driftwood, at this unique safari-style river camp.

Overnight at Seti River Camp.

Day 11: Kasara Jungle Resort

The morning is spent rafting. There are 5 class 2 rapids. The remainder of the trip is a float. On completion of the rafting, we transfer by vehicle to the border area of Chitwan National Park, enjoying a packed lunch en route (a journey of some 2 hours.) On arrival at the resort, we will receive a briefing prior to an afternoon safari or nature walk.

Overnight at Kasara Jungle Resort.

Day 12: Kasara Jungle Resort

Today we'll have a whole day of jungle activities: safari in search of rhinoceros, Bengal tiger (if you are very lucky), deer, birds, monkey, as well as canoeing in the Rapti River. In addition there is an option for a forest walk with a naturalist, bird watching with an ornithologist, or a jeep safari. We'll also learn about the Asian elephants during the Elephant Lecture. In the evening, we'll be entertained with a cultural dance of the ethnic group Tharu, who are the origin of Terai.

Overnight at Kasara Jungle Resort.

Day 13: Kathmandu (4265ft / 1300m)

We walk down to the road head near Birethanti, and continue by private vehicle to Pokhara. Once back in Pokhara, we bid farewell to our trekking staff and return to Kathmandu by air.

Upon arrival in Kathmandu, we'll visit Durbar Square. Kathmandu's Durbar Square was where the city's kings were once crowned and from where they ruled (durbar means 'palace'). As such, the square remains the traditional heart of the old town and Kathmandu's most impressive site. We'll then return to the hotel. The evening is free to enjoy a meal at a local restaurant or at the hotel.
