WHO ARE WE ?

Italian FoodExpo Ltd was founded in 2001, we are a privately owned family business. Over the years we have seen a steady and sustained growth in our business, and we now supply retailers, distributors, traders and food service operators around the world.

WHY ITALIAN FOOD EXPO ?

There is now an increased interest from many retailers around the world in listing a range of Italian food products, due to the popularity and healthy benefits of the Mediterranean diet. Working with us allows retailers to differentiate from competitors by listing various items not normally available from their own market, they have option to introduce high end Italian food products direct from Italy.

INFORMATION BY REQUEST

We carry full information for each of the products we supply, ranging from exact dimension and weights of outer cartons are available on request. Contact us for more details or download our brochure.
