

Julie and Justin from Tamworth wanted their dream home extension and a living space fitting for their family. This is their story.

THE PROJECT: EXTENSION & INTERNAL MODIFICATIONS

"We had a few other quotes from other builders. I went on 'MyBuilder.com' and found DHP. Timing & price was important. The kids were small and so I didn't want disruption.

We needed someone who would take charge of project management as I'm a little bit of a control freak."

THE DHP APPROACH

"DHP were brilliant, I couldn't fault them. They took the family needs into account and ensured the project was seamless. I like to be neat and tidy and they really helped by cleaning up every night.

Paul was here on a regular basis and consulted with us at every stage. There was nothing we asked him that was a problem. The whole team were very efficient and friendly, a real pleasure to work with.

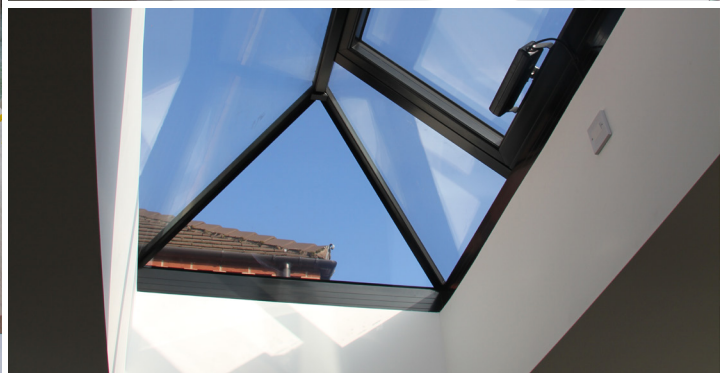

The extension has become a real family space and has transformed our home. They really have bought the outside in."

"Now our best friends are using DHP and they are over the moon."
