

Merchant Taylors' School

Casual Peripatetic Teacher of Piano

Merchant Taylors' Primary School

Start date as soon as possible

Salary - hourly Competitive Rate

We are looking to appoint a casual enthusiastic and talented Peripatetic Piano Teacher to teach at Merchant Taylors' Primary School. The school has a strong tradition of music and we are looking for a teacher with considerable experience of teaching at all levels of ability and has the initiative, vision and the ability to build on the success of our thriving music department and contribute to its further development. Like many of our peripatetic staff, you may well perform professionally and will certainly have the confidence, credibility and technical expertise to encourage participation to enable each pupil to reach his or her music potential. The role is a casual position and the number of hours will be dependent on the number of pupils wishing to study the Piano.

We have a long record of outstanding achievement, high educational standards and strong pastoral care.

For further details and to apply, please visit www.merchanttaylor.com/vacancies. Candidates should submit a letter of application, addressing why they feel they are suitable for the post, together with a completed application form containing details of two referees via email to recruitment@merchanttaylor.com to arrive by midday on Friday 21st February 2020.

Merchant Taylors' School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and applicants must be willing to undergo child protection screening appropriate to the post, including checks with past employers and the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS)