- In any way that contravenes generally accepted standards of internet or other network conduct and usage; or
- In an way which infringes any intellectual property rights of any third party or breaches a third party non-disclosure agreement or obligation; or
- In any way that does not comply with our specific instructions or to send, knowingly receive, upload, download, use or re-use any material which we deem inappropriate.

If we believe that your use of our broadband service is:

- In breach of our Acceptable Use Policy; or
- Is adversely affecting:
 - Our network (or any part of it); or
 - Our other customers’ use of our services

We reserve the right to manage or regulate your usage. We will not impose any restrictions on your use of our broadband service without prior notice unless we are required to do so by our own suppliers. If after we have sent you a notice, we believe that your use of the broadband service continues to be in breach of our Acceptable Use Policy or to adversely affect our network (or any part of it) or our other customers' use of our services then we may manage the type of traffic you are passing and/or suspend or terminate your service. You can contact us by email at support@tst.uk.com or by calling our customer services team on 01244 457870 if you wish to discuss any action we have taken.

We may revise our Fair Use Policy and/or our Acceptable Use Policy at any time by posting the updated version of the policy to our website. You are expected to check this policy from time to time to take notice of any changes we make, as they are legally binding on you.
