

Endemol Ltd

Big Brother House, London

CONTRACT VALUE:

£503k

An unusual contract for TJ Hall, construction and fitting out of a sound stage set for the reality TV show "Big Brother" series 5.

Despite being in use for only a few months the build quality had to be excellent.

Working closely with the TV producers and set designers, this complex project was completed within the deadline.

This was despite frequent last-minute changes to design details as the project progressed, proving TJ Hall's flexibility and desire to give the customer full and complete satisfaction.
