

Bonnie Roberts Jones

416-203-4476

brjones@groiaco.com

BONNIE ROBERTS JONES is a senior lawyer whose practice encompasses a wide range of complex litigation and arbitration matters, including class actions, securities litigation, corporate, shareholder and contractual disputes, cross-border litigation, libel and slander, and the complex end of employment litigation and injunctions. Bonnie has particular expertise in pretrial remedies, such as Mareva and Anton Pillar injunctions. Bonnie has appeared in all levels of the Ontario courts and has extensive experience in complex commercial arbitrations. In addition, she is experienced in the project management side of complex litigation, focusing on electronic discovery and document management.

Bonnie obtained her LL.B from University of British Columbia in 1996 and was called the bar in 1997 (BC) and 1998 (ON).