GOOGLE ANALYTICS

We use a third-party JavaScript plug-in provided by Google called "Google Analytics" to provide us with useful traffic statistics and to better understand how you use our site. We do not have direct access to the information obtained from Google Analytics, but Google provides us with a summary through their dashboard.

We may share the information obtained from Google Analytics with business partners who are interested in advertising on our website. The information shared with these business partners will not contain any personally identifying information (Google does not provide us with direct access to the data and therefore we cannot see this information).

You can opt-out of having your information collected by Google Analytics by downloading the Google Analytics opt-out browser add-on provided by Google. This will prevent your information being used by Google Analytics. Doing this will not affect your ability to use our Site in any way.

CALIFORNIA ONLINE PRIVACY PROTECTION ACT

CalOPPA is the first state law in the nation to require commercial websites and online services to post a privacy policy. The law's reach stretches well beyond California to require a person or company in the United States (and conceivably the world) that operates websites collecting personally identifiable information from California consumers to post a conspicuous privacy policy on its website stating exactly the information being collected and those individuals with whom it is being shared, and to comply with this policy.

According to CalOPPA we agree to the following:

- ✓ Users can visit our site anonymously
- ✓ a link to this Privacy Policy appears on our home page, or at the very least on the first significant page after entering our website.
- ✓ Our Privacy Policy link includes the word 'Privacy', and can be easily be found on the page specified above.
- ✓ Users will be notified of any privacy policy changes on our Privacy Policy Page.
- ✓ Users are able to change their personal information by: emailing us, calling us, logging in to their account, chatting with us or sending us a ticket.

MEMBERSHIP ELIGIBILITY and COPPA (children online privacy protection act)

Our Service does not address people aged under 18 or who have not attained the legal age (“Minors”)

We do not knowingly collect personally identifiable information from anyone under 18. If you are a parent or guardian and you are aware that your Children/Minors has provided us with Personal Information, please contact us. If we discover that anyone under 18 has provided us with Personal Information, we will delete such information from our servers immediately.

When it comes to the collection of personal information from children under 13 (“Children”), the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA) puts parents in control. The Federal Trade Commission, the nation's consumer protection agency, enforces the COPPA Rule, which spells out what operators of websites and online services must do to protect children's privacy and safety online.

We do not specifically market to anyone under 18. Our Services are not available to people aged under 18 or who have not attained the legal age (“Minors”). If you are a minor, you cannot use this service. PLEASE DO NOT USE THIS SITE IF YOU ARE NOT QUALIFIED.

FAIR INFORMATION PRACTICES

The Fair Information Practices Principles form the backbone of privacy law in the United States and the concepts they include have played a significant role in the development of data protection laws around the globe. Understanding the Fair Information Practice Principles and how they should be implemented is critical to comply with the various privacy laws that protect personal information.

In order to be in line with Fair Information Practices we will take the following responsive action, should a data breach occur:

- ✓ We will notify the users via email within 7 business days
- ✓ We will notify the users via in site notification within 7 business days

We also agree to the individual redress principle, which requires that individuals have a right to pursue legally enforceable rights against data collectors and processors who fail to adhere to the law. This principle requires not only that individuals have enforceable rights against data users, but also that individuals have recourse to courts or a government agency to investigate and/or prosecute non-compliance by data processors.

CAN SPAM ACT

The CAN-SPAM Act is a law that sets the rules for commercial email, establishes requirements for commercial messages, gives recipients the right to have emails stopped from being sent to them, and spells out tough penalties for violations.

We collect your email address in order to:

- Send information, respond to inquiries, and/or other requests or questions.
- Process orders and to send information and updates pertaining to orders
- Send you additional information related to your product and/or service.
- Market to our mailing list or continue to send emails to our clients after the original transaction has occurred

To be in accordance with CANSPAM we agree to the following:

- ✓ NOT use false, or misleading subjects or email addresses
- ✓ Identify the message as an advertisement in some reasonable way
- ✓ Include the physical address of our business or site headquarters
- ✓ Monitor third party email marketing services for compliance, if one is used.
- ✓ Honor opt-out/unsubscribe requests quickly
- ✓ Allow users to unsubscribe by using the link at the bottom of each email

If at any time you would like to unsubscribe from receiving future emails, you can follow the instructions at the bottom of each email and we will promptly remove you from our mailing list.

CHANGES TO THIS PRIVACY POLICY

We may update our Privacy Policy from time to time. We will notify you of any changes by posting the new Privacy Policy on this page.

You are advised to review this Privacy Policy periodically for any changes. Changes to this Privacy Policy are effective when they are posted on this page.
