

Who we exist for

What we offer them

What this leads to

Our tenants

Our participants

A place of welcome, whoever you are

Homes where our tenants can feel safe & secure

Activities where tenants & participants can develop or rediscover skills & interests

Support for creative self-expression

Support to overcome obstacles, set goals & work towards these

A Peter Bedford community to be part of & branch out from

A place where we ask 'how can you use your talents to help each other?'

Our tenants & participants ...are more aware of who they are & what their strengths are & more confident of managing things themselves

... build skills for life, work & to settle in new places if they need to

... achieve their personal goals

... find support & satisfaction in making new friends & helping each other

...have a greater sense of well-being, hope and aspiration

Our tenants find & keep a home that meets their needs

Our tenants & participants are & feel more active & involved in the wider community

Our tenants & participants find & stay in work, training or other meaningful activity

Our final goal

A society where everyone is valued & seen as having something to contribute

Some key factors that influence success

Staff with the right skills, values & experience

A culture of empowerment and respect

Tenants & participants taking up the opportunities on offer

A well-run, flexible & sustainable organisation.

Strong partnerships & networks

A supportive wider community

A good supply of tenants that PBHA can help

Timely access to services

Availability of
- suitable move-on accommodation
- work /work experience/volunteering opportunities
