Festivals 2016

£8.00 per person

Artisan Cider Festival

Date: 27 & 28 August

Time: 10 - 5

An amazing range of the best local artisan ciders and more music than ever before! A NEW Cider trail will take place where visitors will be encouraged to taste the range of wonderful local ciders and give us your opinion on which deserves Festival Cider 2015.

Enjoy local food and entertainment over the whole weekend.

Tours of the orchards will be running all weekend and the craft and produce village will be full of fantastic local products. There is something for the whole family with plenty of activities for little festival goers too!

National Apple Festival

Date: 15 & 16 October

Time: 10 - 5

2016 will see a record breaking display of 1000 apple varieties! Discover something new and tasty with 'try before you buy' from around 70 apple varieties, fill a bag with your favourites to take home!

Tractor trailer and walking tours of the orchards will be running and the craft and produce village returns to offer you some unique gift ideas.

Enjoy live music, local food and entertainment over the whole weekend. Take a miniature train ride to see the farm from a whole new view and children can get crafty and have their face painted in the little festival goer's area.
