

Elecard StreamEye

Elecard StreamEye - a powerful software tool for professionals in video compression field. It enables to perform standard compliance verification and an effective in-depth bitstream analysis for further video compression optimization and debugging.

SPECIFICATION

Info panels

Stream, Picture, Block Info, Headers, Prediction, DBP info, Block presenter, Statistics

Tools

Stream Viewer, HEX Viewer, Pixels Viewer, Message Viewer, Buffer Analyzer

Extras

Command line tool, Binding mode, Raw file support, Frame memory, applied filters and configurable overlays

New in version 4.5

- AV1 support
- FLV support
- New video quality metrics: VMAF and VMAF phone
- HEVC standard compliance check
- Binding mode across all StreamEye Studio applications
- Sharing comments between application instances and StreamEye Studio applications
- "Open with" function for quick opening of the current stream in other StreamEye Studio applications

New StreamEye
for AV1!

Elecard StreamEye Basic

Elecard StreamEye Basic is an easy must-have instrument for QA, technical support, and system integration teams dealing with video compression quality verification. It is designed to localize inefficiencies in encoded streams.

Main features

- Supports MPEG-2, AVC, HEVC, VP9, AV1, up to 4K
- Essential Statistics displayed on Barchart
- HEX and Stream viewers
- Picture and Block Info panels
- Motion vectors, partitions, slice boundaries
- Navigation and search

Take advantage of Elecard StreamEye key features in StreamEye Basic!

Elecard StreamEye is the most efficient solution for video quality analysis on the professional digital video market. About 10000 companies use Elecard analyzing solutions.