Common Grounds Food Service Training to Employment Program Eligibility Criteria

- Common Grounds Food Service Training to Employment Program is a free, entry-level training program. No previous foodservice experience is necessary.
- Individuals must reside in Bucks or Montgomery Counties and be 18 or older to participate.
- Trainees must possess basic literacy and math skills (comparable to grade 6) and be able to communicate in English.
- Trainees must be sober during all training program activities. Trainees who appear intoxicated or are under the influence will be asked to leave the session. Trainees who are asked to leave sessions due to intoxication more than two times may be terminated from the program.
- Background checks are conducted for everyone seeking enrollment in keeping with the PA Act 153 Employee Compliance Policy. Applicants who have outstanding warrants in any jurisdiction, or who have court proceedings scheduled that could result in incarceration must satisfy their legal obligations prior to enrollment. Being less than 100% honest regarding criminal background will be grounds for denial of services. All trainees who are currently on probation must be in compliance with the conditions of their service.
 - Background checks include: 1. PA criminal history record check (state police); 2. Child abuse history certification; 3. If an applicant has lived in PA for more than 10 years: A signed affidavit swearing no record of disqualifying offenses. OR, if an applicant has not lived in PA for more than 10 years: Fingerprint based federal criminal history clearance (FBI). Confirmation of submitted clearances must be included with the training program application. These clearances are free to complete, with the exception of the fingerprint based federal criminal history clearance; Manna will pay for this fee. Please see the application for instructions.
 - The following convictions may prevent an individual from being enrolled in Common Grounds: Level 3 Sex Offense, Arson, and/or Violent Crime.
- Trainees must be economically disadvantaged as defined as 300% or less of the poverty level.
- Trainees must be able to work, at least part-time, and express that as a goal.
- Any student who has a condition that could adversely affect his or her employability will be asked to receive clearance from a provider prior to enrollment.
- Trainees must have these physical skills: Ability to lift 30 lbs., stand on your feet for four hours in a high-paced setting (unless reasonable accommodations are needed), safely navigate a kitchen setting, and handle kitchen and food prep equipment.
