Nicolas Catena Zapata Cabernet Sauvignon/Malbec 2013 150cl

Nicolás Catena Zapata has an intense dark violet color with blue-black tones. A complex wine with delicate aromas of black cherry and licorice, it is enlivened by minerals, violet, spice, and herbs. The palate is sharply delineated and impressively concentrated, with a serious backbone supporting its very fresh currant and mineral flavors.

The inaugural 1997 vintage of this Cabernet Sauvignon and Malbec blend set a new standard of quality for wines from South America when it won a series of blind tastings against other prestigious cuvées from around the world. Nicolás Catena Zapata is made from a plant-by-plant selection of historic rows in the Catena Zapata vineyards.

The wine is made from over 200 separate microvinifications representing different rows, altitudes, and harvest times. The wine is aged in French oak barrels for 18 months. It is only produced in outstanding vintage years.

Barolo Castiglione Vietti 2013 150cl

The grapes are selected from small vineyards in Castiglione Falletto, Monforte, Barolo, Novello; the vines are between 7 and 40 years old, planted in a clay-limestone soil. Plants are trained with guyot method, with an average density of roughly 4800 units per hectare. All the different crus are vinified and aged separately with slightly different processes to underline the singular characteristics of each parcel and terroir. Fermentation occurs in stainless steel with daily cap submersion for extraction of flavour and colour.

The wine is aged for 24-30 months in oak and then all parcels are carefully blended before bottling.

Beautiful glowing ruby. Fine earthy nose, but right now quite backward. Succulent palate with a powerful tannic structure. Really long and a little vibrant. Firm, long red-fruit finish

£175

1999 Chateau Leoville Barton, Saint-Julien, France 150cl

Whenever Bordeaux is criticised for its price rises or lack of understanding of customer needs there is one name that is always excepted: Anthony Barton. Not only are his wines always very fairly priced, but at their best they rival the quality of the First Growths.

Deep plummy/blackcurrant nose. Pure. Good structure/tannins. Ripe sweet black cherry fruit. Stylish wine, wonderful integration and smoothness. Divine. A perfumed red-berried nose. The oak is still quite pronounced, very sweet and vanillary.

The palate is medium-bodied, dominated by the Cabernet with well-integrated oak. Smooth and seductive. sturdy tannins, a little pepper again on the entry with very good structure on the mid-palate. Quite foursquare and “correct” with an edgy, off-dry, very “Saint Julien” finish. Very fine – very...English! Drink now-

£300

2010 Chateau Fourcas-Hosten, Lustrac-Medoc, France 150cl

Blend of two complementary terroirs (clay-limestone, Pyrenean gravel) Château Fourcas Hosten offers the gourmet balance of a crunchy fruit on the attack and a complex mouth with a velvety texture. An elegant and racy tannic texture brings a lot of finesse to the finish.

The Fourcas-Hosten 2010 has an attractive bouquet with blackberry, warm gravel and cedar scents that are nicely defined. The palate is medium-bodied with plenty of supple black fruit on the entry, nicely judged acidity and a pleasing rounded finish with good weight and structure.

Jancis Robinson 17/20

“Blueish tinge. Amazing intense. Lifted and perfumed. Something a bit floral on the nose. Lots of zest and great structure plus masses of ripe fruit. More embryonic than some. Dry finish. Lots in reserve here. Lovely youthful wine. Real freshness.”

2014 Jean-Luc & Eric Burguet Gevrey-Chambertin Mes Favorites Vieilles Vignes, Cote de Nuits, France 150cl

This cuvée is made from older vines in their favourite sites

The 2014 Gevrey Chambertin Mes Favorites Vieilles Vignes has a modest nose with slightly smudged, quite earthy red berry fruit. The wine displays a dense purple colour, with rich raspberry fruit; new barrels providing a bit more stuffing. The palate is crisp on the entry, building gently in the mouth with hints of blood orange and black pepper towards the nicely structured, almost conservative finish. A decent Gevrey, if not one of my own favorites. This is really singing!

In the mouth it’s a seamless pool of those green plant and leaf notes, fleshed out with quiet green orchard and citrus fruits. As ever, it’s a remarkably unshowy, undemonstrative, stealthy wine, despite its fame and the reputed showiness of the variety. All is held in check by those clinging, cossetting cool clays. Give it time in decanter, glass or mouth, and you’ll see figures and allusions quietly stirring. 94/100	175.00

4019	Fixin – Domaine Louis Jadot 2011, Côte de Nuits, Burgundy, France	55.00
	A brilliant deep purple or what the Burgundians call "deep mid-red". The bouquet comprises flower scents (violet, peony), fruits (blackcurrant, Morello cherry, quince), animal scents, musk and pepper. A little tannic and a little hard in youth, with age the Fixin acquire a heightened and rounded attack and solid structure. It's fullness is remarkable and it's texture delicate.
4016	Domaine Jean Chauvenet Nuits Saint Georges 2015 – Côte De Nuits, Burgundy, France	47.50
	A fresh, intense red wine, with aromas and flavours of cherry, liquorice, and balsamic. These wines are approachable in their youth but still with all of the power, concentration and complexity that they have always had.
4015	Gevrey-Chambertin Domaine Roux 2016 – Burgundy, France	70.00
	Great red Burgundy like this manages to be both robust and muscular whilst still supple and fragrant. This is a joy! A master class in Burgundian Pinot Noir. The grapes are handpicked, then crushed and de-stemmed. The first fermentation is in stainless steel tanks, followed by a second fermentation for 2-6 months in French barrels, 100% malolactic. The finished wine is fine and superbly stylish with an appealing texture, well-judged oak and well defined length.
4020	Vougeot 1^{er} Cru 'Les Petits Vougeots' 2015 Domaine Roux Pere et Fils – Burgundy, France	95.00
	This wine is made from Pinot Noir and named after the village of Vougeot in Burgundy. It comes from a special vineyard with Premier Cru status (one level below Grand Cru) called 'Les Petits Vougeots'. It has vibrant aromas of red cherry with silky liquorice notes and flavours of raspberry jam and cedar.
4063	Morey-St-Denis 1er Cru Les Chaffots Domaine Michel Magnien 2010	120.00
	Morey-Saint-Denis is in Burgundy's Côte de Nuits between Gevrey-Chambertin to its north and Chambolle-Musigny to its south. This organically made red is all about sensory seduction and will floor you with its subtle aromas. The wine is centred around its core of spicy fruit that's supple with medium bodied flavours. As with much lauded Burgundy it's structured and concentrated on a complex finish.

	The 2009 Vosne-Romanee Les Suchots is a totally complete, harmonious wine imbued with the essence of dark fruit, sweet spices, menthol and leather, all of which are supported by a firm vein of minerality. Intensely perfumed and mineral through to the finish, the Suchots delivers incredible class and sheer pedigree. The round, harmonious finish completes the wine beautifully.

- 4060 Château Talbot, St-Julien, 4^{ème} Cru Classé 2009 135.00
 As with the 2005 vintage, you immediately feel the effects of the year translate into more layers of flavour. I love this 2009, because it is still classic Bordeaux, well balanced in alcohol – nothing excessive but it allows the château to show the best of itself. Sometimes Talbot can be a little reserved, a little too classical, but here the fruit is generous, dark, brambly and still young. The mint notes remain fresh, but the graphite and slate are more evident, and you can feel the tug of a great Cabernet here.
- 4061 2004 Château Canon la Gaffeliere, Saint-Emilion 1^{er} Grand Cru 135.00
 A brilliant achievement for proprietor Stefan von Neipperg, this blend of 50% Merlot, 45% Cabernet Franc, and 5% Cabernet Sauvignon exhibits an exuberant, cedary bouquet revealing scents of espresso roast, chocolate, pain grille, and sweet red and black fruits. Opulent and fleshy for a 2004, this sexy beauty offers plenty of purity, symmetry, and sweet tannin.
- 4070 2005 Château Lynch-Bages Pauillac Bordeaux, France 250.00
 The Château Lynch Bages 2005 has an enthralling graphite and cedar scented bouquet, like a young cousin of the Grand Puy Lacoste. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin, one of the most feminine and elegant Lynch Bages in recent years with a lightness of touch on the finish. That is not to say it lacks fruit intensity, but the balance is so assured that it just seems to glide over the mouth. Stylish, assured and meticulous winemaking here.
- 4071 2000 Château Clos l'Eglise, Pomerol, Bordeaux, France 290.00
 Seven years ago I said this was a monumental wine, and at two different recent tastings, it was a true star of the vintage. Its stunning dark plum color offers up notes of caramelized red and black fruits, toffee, smoke, Asian plum sauce, sweet cherries, chocolate, and espresso. Its spectacular aromatics do not disappoint on the palate, as this multi-dimensional, highly complex, opulent wine seems to have hit a magical point in its evolution. Full-bodied, and concentrated, there is no issue with drinking this dazzling effort now, but those who own it can certainly cellar it for another 15 or more years. Bravo!
