

WHY YOU SHOULD JOIN

ILOVEHEADLEHULME.COM

SO much more than just another website or social media platform.

ILoveCheadleHulme.com is about creating a thriving community for us all: businesses, groups, schools, churches and residents...

I love Cheadle Hulme - you should too!

We are a fusion of local features magazine; a business, trade and service directory; and a community portal, all in one. With over 7000 unique visitors a month, we are THE website for all things Cheadle Hulme.

ILoveCheadleHulme.com LOVES to introduce, develop, connect and promote the businesses and community groups in Cheadle Hulme. Our aim is to boost Cheadle Hulme's profile, and maintain our 'sought-after' status as a place to live, work and play. To foster a true community spirit and to encourage people to shop local, spend local and support our local businesses.

ILoveCheadleHulme.com was launched in 2016 following in the footsteps of ILoveBramhall.com, founded by Wendy Green in 2013. ILoveBramhall's success and community spirit goes from strength-to-strength.

I Love Cheadle Hulme is also run by Kate Godfrey and has 1500+ followers on Twitter and over 7000 genuine likes on Facebook. These numbers are rising daily!

Former professional footballer and manager Paul Dickov joins the Laurus Trust

27th March 2017 | Written by ILCH | Categories : news & features

Former professional footballer and manager Paul Dickov has joined the Laurus Trust as their Head of Sporting Excellence.

Paul played as a forward from 1990 to 2011, starting his career with Arsenal, where he won the UEFA Cup Winners Cup in 1994, before moving to Manchester City in 1996. Whilst at City, Paul experienced two promotions and two relegations, playing in three different divisions, and famously scoring the injury time equalising goal that paved the way for
