

Intelligence Analysis Training Ltd

Intelligence Analysis
Training & Consultancy

8th September 2009

Volume: 02

On Line Newsletter

CI-01 Receiving fantastic acclaim

Successful Students

Good feedback too

Its been two months since the first students started their coursework on the basic CI-01 Crime & Intelligence Analysis introduction course. As the course participants grow the feedback has started to arrive:

"I enjoyed the course very much as was well presented and also very helpful to understand the theories of crime and intelligence analysis". (Tony Jones)

"A good value course, with all components well structured and set out logically. (Oliver Broad)

"I enjoyed the course very much and look forward to more". (Kenneth Barden)

"Very impressed with the course content. Excellent and very informative course". (Andrew Kemplay)

"I thoroughly enjoyed it and was as interesting and informative as I hoped it would be", "Enjoyed this basic introduction and has made me even more determined to forge a career in this line of work. Thanks for creating it"! (Neil Bostock)

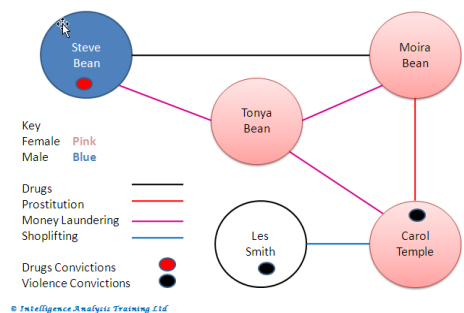

As this course is on line you can start it at anytime and work at your own speed, it is recommended that you complete CI-01 before moving onto CI-02, see www.intelligenceanalysisitraining.com

CI-02 Nearing Completion

We are working tirelessly in an effort to bring the Intermediate course on line. Again we wish our students to enjoy their learning, so watch this space, it should be here by October.

This course will include thinking skills, inference development and various charting techniques.

Chart Components - Use of Colour

We can come to you

We can come to you

UK & Overseas Classroom Courses also available
UK & Overseas Classroom Courses also available