

Zoo Outreach Organisation Trust
2017-2018 Foreign Contributions

| Date | Source   | Purpose   | Amount |
|-------------|---|--|---------------|
| 03-Apr-17   | Rainforest Trust, USA   | Feasibility study for establishment of the first invertebrate sanctuary in India for the Theraphosid spider Poecilotheria hanumavilasumica                                  | 1,82,414.00   |
| 26-Apr-17   | Zoo Outreach Organisation, USA                                  | 1. Cool Cucumbers! Can these salty invertebrates be exploited?2. General Species Planning & Conservation Project   | 15,94,022.00  |
| 05-May-17   | Mohammed bin Zayed Species Conservation Fund, UAE               | Travel Reimbursement: R.V. Sanjay Molur, Executive Director travel towards Mohammed bin Zayed Species Conservation Fund Advisory Board Meeting held in UK                          | 98,819.00     |
| 28-Jun-17   | Wildlife Information Liaison Development Society, India         | Himalayan Langur project Outreach/education activities, materials and Project Consultancy  | 2,00,000.00   |
| 28-Jul-17   | US Fish and Wildlife Service, USA                               | Prevention and mitigation of conflict between humans and Pachyderms in Nepal through outreach programs   | 41,88,973.00  |
| 16-Nov-17   | Bristol Zoo, UK   | Travel Reimbursement: R.V. Sanjay Molur, Executive Director travel towards IUCN Primate Specialist Group Workshop for the redlisting of Lemurs in Madagascar - cancellation amount | 41,118.00     |
| 08-Jan-18   | Environment Agency – Abu Dhabi, UAE (through R.V. Sanjay Molur) | Zoo Outreach Organisation & CPSG-South Asia facilitated the Arabian Wonder Gecko Conservation Planning Workshop in Al Ain, UAE   | 91,246.06     |