

DHL International Magna House, Staines

CONTRACT VALUE:

£542k

DHL's Magna House is a modern office building of 27,347 sq.ft. originally fitted out as a data processing centre.

The first floor was a specialist computer room with deep access floors air handling units and a fire suppressant system.

All required re-configuring to become a general administration facility.

The 12-week programme was achieved in time even allowing for the extensive and specialist stripping-out work that was required.

WORKS INCLUDED:

- › Extensive stripping out including under-floor work
- › Partitioning
- › Ceilings
- › Flooring, including raised access to first floor
- › Joinery
- › Staff facilities
- › Office A/C system installation
- › Computer room, including small power and data
- › Fire alarm system

Creating the perfect
working environment

