

Press Release 7 May 2013

HARLEQUIN MANAGEMENT SERVICES (SOUTH EAST) LIMITED (IN ADMINISTRATION)

Anthony Peter Davidson and Stephen Blandford Ryman, both of Shipleys LLP, were appointed, at the request of the directors, joint administrators of Harlequin Management Services (South East) Limited on 3 May 2013.

The company acts as primary agent for the umbrella of Harlequin Property companies, engaging in sales and marketing of overseas investment property to private purchasers. Its turnover represents commissions receivable from property development companies and also the recharge of expenditure in the company's capacity as agent.

The administrators aim is to maximise the return for all the company's creditors, and the directors' powers are suspended. The administrators are reviewing the financial position of the company in order to ascertain the available options.
