Course Syllabus

Accident Investigation

This course is aimed at all managers who have a responsibility to investigate accidents in the workplace.

The aim of the training will be to provide managers with a measurable level of competence in accident investigation, which will allow them to be able to effectively investigate accidents and provide an in depth conclusion and following recommendations to prevent a recurrence.

The course will cover the following topics:

- Accidents and ill health
- Workplace accidents and illness
- Cost's of accidents and illness
- Accident investigation
- Factors affecting health& safety
- The three basic causes
- Be prepared
- Record the facts
- Interviewing
- Problem solving techniques
- Accident ratio studies
- Duty of employers
- Control methods

Course requirements:
- One-day training session
- On-going assessment
- After course project (1500 words)
- Three weeks submission

A certificate of attendance will be awarded to all candidates who successfully complete the course.

Next Step?

Contact our Learning & Development team at Aspen Wolf Ltd on 0191 581 1000 to discuss your specific training needs.

Feb. 2016