Mark Taylor Design appoints Homestyle PR

Renowned for designing and creating bespoke furniture and joinery from distinctive libraries to luxury kitchens, Mark Taylor Design also has its own interior design and sourcing division

Luxury British furniture manufacturer and designer Mark Taylor Design has appointed Homestyle PR to help them raise awareness of the next stage of their business and brand growth. Homestyle PR's director Sarah Mills says: "Our team of home interest journalists and media strategists is delighted to be working with Mark Taylor Design, helping them to promote their unique joinery, furniture and interior design service throughout the UK."

Mark Taylor Design was founded in 1996 and, with the launch of their interior design and sourcing division last year, they now offer complete project management for clients.

The company has always been renowned for designing and creating distinctive, bespoke furniture and joinery. It is now becoming known for its unprecedented knowledge of working with innovative materials and unique finishes, with spectacular results.

Now their expanded offer includes lighting expertise, space planning, and advice on security services, landscape gardening and exterior extensions, and much more.

The team works closely with leading interior designers and architects and directly with private clients. They work out of their studio in Buckinghamshire, supported by their workshops in Wiltshire and Oxfordshire.
