

CATTHORPE
MANOR ESTATE
 COUNTRY HOUSE HOTEL & RESTAURANT

Two Night Breaks
£130 per room

Rugby might not be the first place you think of when planning a weekend away however, whilst Stratford and the Cotswolds have charm and attractions a-plenty, they also have an abundance of visiting tourists to compete with for parking space and queues!

If you fancy a weekend away without the crowds why not visit this charming market town, with its beautiful historic buildings, including Rugby School – the birthplace of the game, which boasts Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain, poet Rupert Brooke and actor Robert Hardy amongst its alumni? In addition, Rugby is within easy distance of the more famous attractions of Coventry Cathedral, the city of Leicester – where the King Richard III Exhibit is housed, the NEC and Althorp House – home of Princess Diana.

2-night stays are inclusive of the following:

- Double or Twin accommodation for two nights, to include either a Thursday & Friday, Friday & Saturday* or Saturday & Sunday night.
- Full English and continental breakfast both mornings, or a packed breakfast if you wish to get out-and-about early for a busy day of site seeing.
- 10% discount for use on dining and drinks at the Manor during your stay.

Rates (inclusive of two nights accommodation plus breakfast)
