Additional Feedback on your Supplier

The team were incredibly helpful and professional through the whole process. James has a real creative flare which was a real asset as we did not have a wedding planner to provide design ideas. His on site team were professional and very quick. They even managed to accommodate a last minute request for more clear panes which was not in the original quote.

Why Did you book this Supplier

They had a great website and were incredibly local to our venue. After the onsite meeting with James we had no doubt we made the right choice.

Additional Feedback on your Supplier

Very helpful response to our initial enquiry and assistance in the planning of the whole wedding event. Detailed explanations of the various options available including experienced advice for the style of event we were trying to achieve. All that we could have expected was achieved on the Day and the whole exercise was very efficiently completed.

Why Did you book this Supplier

We were confident that Abbas had the experience and helpful approach to achieve a successful wedding celebration and we were right.
