

ANNUAL NETWORK CONFERENCE

Wednesday 6th February 2019
The Midland Hotel Manchester

09.30 Coffee and registration

10.20 Opening remarks:
Allison Ogden-Newton, CEO - Keep Britain Tidy

10.40 Welcome to Manchester:
Councillor Rabnawaz Akbar, Manchester City Council

10.50 National Litter Strategy:
Chris Preston - Defra

11.10 How do we challenge conventions and change reality to move towards a 'Tidy Country'
Allison Ogden-Newton, CEO - Keep Britain Tidy
Chris Preston - Defra
Councillor Rabnawaz Akbar, Manchester City Council

11.45 Coffee Break

12.00 Tackling the issue: Fly-tipping, where are we at?
Richard Mcilwain, Deputy Chief Executive - Keep Britain Tidy
Chris Choi, Consumer Editor - ITN News
Dr Jane Beasley, Director - Beasley Associates

12.45 Changing behaviour - How is it done?
Ben Page - Ipsos Mori

13:15 Lunch

14.00 A legal perspective:
Jenny Watts - Watts Legal

15.00 Coffee break

15.15 Workshop sessions one (choose one from the list below)

Option one Tidy - Creating a Tidy City. An interactive workshop highlighting the progress on the Keep Manchester Tidy partnership, with experts from Keep Britain Tidy and Manchester City Council.

Option two - Challenging reality: The Keep Britain Tidy Centre for Social Innovation will host a collaborative workshop to seek your views on what future campaigns and interventions could look like.

Option three - The environment - a legal perspective: A legal update on all things environmental - your chance to discuss your issues and speak to the experts on areas such as Duty of Care, littering from vehicles and fly-tipping FPNs.

16.00 Change workshops

16:15 Workshop sessions two (choose one from the list below)

Option one - Creating a Tidy City. An interactive workshop highlighting the progress on the Keep Manchester Tidy partnership, with experts from Keep Britain Tidy and Manchester City Council.

Option two - Challenging reality: The Keep Britain Tidy Centre for Social Innovation will host a collaborative workshop to seek your views on what future campaigns and interventions could look like.

Option three - The environment - a legal perspective: A legal update on all things environmental - your chance to discuss your issues and speak to the experts on areas such as Duty of Care, littering from vehicles and fly-tipping FPNs.

17.00 Close:
Allison Ogden- Newton, CEO - Keep Britain Tidy

17:15 Hotel check-in

19:00 Shortlisted award winners meet for photos

19:30 Pre-dinner drinks

20:00 Dinner followed by the awards

SPEAKERS

Allison Ogden-Newton
Chief Executive
Keep Britain Tidy

Rabnawaz Akbar
Executive Member for Neighbourhoods
Manchester City
Council

Chris Choi
Consumer Editor
ITV News

Chris Preston
Deputy Director
Waste & Recycling
DEFRA

Richard McIlwain
Deputy Chief Executive
Keep Britain Tidy

Dr Jane Beasley
Director
Beasley Associates

Jenny Watts
Environmental Solicitor
Watts Legal

Ben Page
Chief Executive
Ipsos MORI