Keeping Insurance Simple

THE NEED TO INSURE

Insurance is a necessity for members of the Age England Association - but it doesn't have to be a chore to arrange it!

An insurance broker that works in your sector understands the insurance products that you need and helps to arrange the right covers for you at the most competitive price. So whether you work in a charity shop, a helpline service or a transport service for older people, you can ensure your liabilities, vehicles and stock are protected.

And as a trustee, you'll need to protect yourself from claims with trustees' liability or management liability cover.

Whoever you are supporting through your work, you need the support of a good insurance broker to take away the hassle of getting everything covered, and making sure that any claims are managed in your best interest.
