

BRISTLECONE NEO SENSE.AI SUPPLY CHAIN'S EARLY WARNING SYSTEM

NEO™ Sense.ai is a cloud-based solution that leverages AI to convert data into knowledge.

WHAT IT DOES

DELIVERS ACTIONABLE INSIGHT

Ingests and mines a deluge of unstructured data and overlays the external event data with internal supply chain data – to arm you with actionable insight.

OPTIMIZES RESOURCES

Timely recommendations enable you to align product cycles and suppliers, so you can adapt and respond to volatile, real-world conditions in near real time.

ENABLES FUTURE READINESS

Simplifying end-to-end supply chain visibility throughout the supply chain ecosystem helps you strategize today – and stay ahead of the curve tomorrow.

HOW WE DO IT

Sense.ai continually assesses opportunities and threats and provides alerts that inspire action.

Assess

Sense.ai proactively monitors and gauges the potential impact of current and historical world events on your supply chain.

Alert

Sense.ai helps mitigate risk by providing timely, concise and consolidated updates about disruptions to your ecosystem.

Action

Sense.ai ensures business continuity by helping prioritize resources when supply, production or fulfillment are disrupted.
