

GONVILLE & CAIUS COLLEGE, CAMBRIDGE

TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR OCCUPATION OF ACCOMMODATION

These terms and conditions apply to the occupation of rooms by junior members of the College and should be read alongside information published on The Venn, the College's intranet together with the College's Accommodation Handbook, General Handbook and Rules and Regulations.

Occupation agreements are on the basis of a Licence, signed by the Licensee and on behalf of the College before the commencement of occupation. The College reserves the right, when reasonable to do so, to change the rooms allocated to the Licensee from time to time during the course of the Licence and on giving the Licensee reasonable notice. The use of the rooms provided is for the Licensee's own single occupation only (unless otherwise stated).

Payment

The accommodation charge for the Room is payable in three instalments. The due dates are published on The Venn, the College's intranet.

Termination

- a) The Licence is for the fixed Licence periods as laid down in the Principal Terms. The Licence does not apply between the Licence Periods and expires at the end of the last of the Licence Periods without further notice being given.
- b) The Licence may be terminated at other times in the following circumstances:
 - (i) by the College giving the Licensee 28 days notice in writing upon the Licensee ceasing to study in the College or ceasing to be treated as continuing in residence whether by reason of withdrawal, postponement, suspension, exclusion or otherwise. For this purpose, a person is studying in the College if engaged in a course in the University or some other course of study approved by the College.
 - (ii) by the College giving the Licensee such notice as is fair and proportionate in all the circumstances of the case of, in consequence of the College disciplinary procedures, it is determined that the student has committed an offence justifying its termination.

- (iii) by the College giving the Licensee 28 days notice in writing if the Licensee has failed to pay the full accommodation charge, whether or not formally demanded, or is in material breach of any of the terms and conditions of this agreement and in either case has failed to pay the accommodation charge or put right the breach after being given reasonable notice in writing by the College requiring the Licensee to do so.

(If the Licensee does not vacate when the Licence comes to an end, the College will be entitled to apply to the court in order to obtain possession.)

Terms and Conditions

The Licensee agrees: -

- a) to regularly check the College's intranet site (the Venn) where formal announcements including, but not limited to matters of maintenance, IT service, housekeeping, bills and charges will be published.
