

Do you desire to serve God
in a tangible,
hands-on way?

Is the Lord calling a team from your church or school
to support Bible translation?

"My eyes were opened to the world vision of JAARS and Bible translation."
— a 2016 volunteer
from South Carolina

The JAARS Center in Waxhaw, North Carolina, welcomes teams from churches, colleges, and schools to help in many ways—all in the support of worldwide Bible translation. This is where people are making Bible translation possible in the most remote and difficult places on earth. Nearly 700 million people have little-to-no Scripture in the language they understand best—their heart language. JAARS is here to do something about that.

"I discovered I could do a job that a full-time missionary did not have time to do." — a 2015 volunteer from Michigan

WHAT HAVE TEAMS DONE IN THE PAST?

Volunteers find many opportunities to use their skills to serve at the JAARS Center.

- landscaping
- outdoor and indoor cleaning
- home repairs
- craft preparation for children's programs
- interior and exterior painting

REQUIREMENTS OF ALL VOLUNTEERS:

- have an interest in Bible translation
- commit to one week on the JAARS campus (Some flexibility may be given.)
- be willing to serve where needed
- be in good health and have health insurance at time of service
- be willing to sign a JAARS Voluntary Release of Rights and Waiver of Liability form
- be at least 14 years old (Children under 14 are welcome and may work as helpers alongside their parents. Additional paperwork is required.)

"By helping at the JAARS Center, I was actually contributing to the worldwide work of Bible translation."
— a 2016 volunteer from Indiana

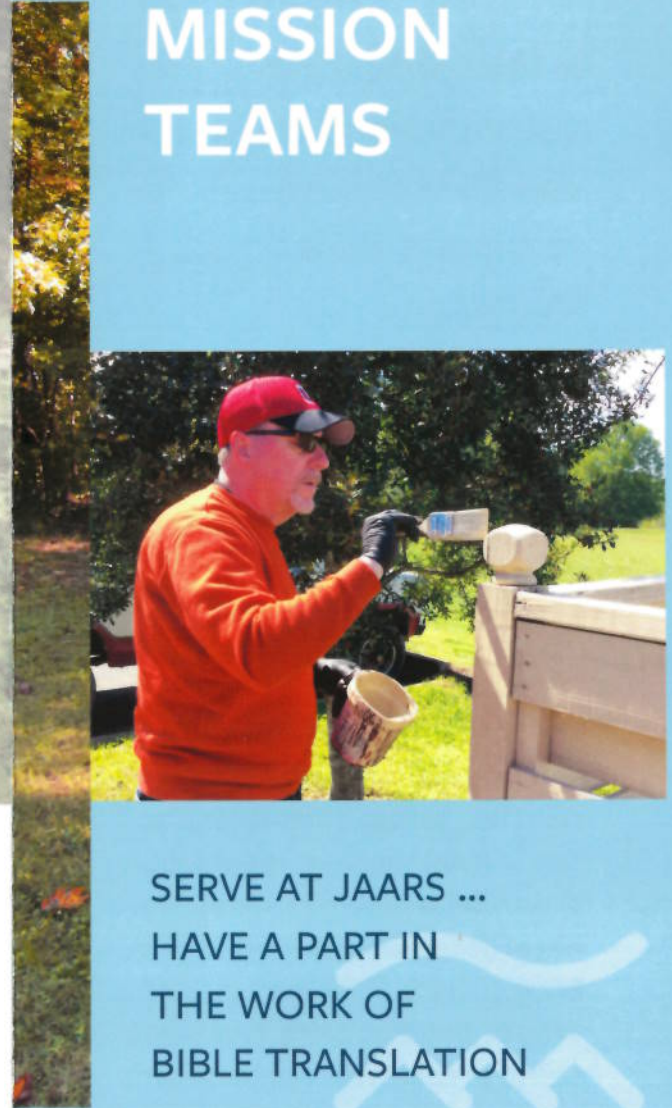

Along with being a part of the work of Bible translation through serving, you will hear stories of how God's Word has impacted lives around the world, and go home equipped with tools to share this with others.

Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms.

—1 Peter 4:10
