

The Passion of Jesus in Trafalgar Square

We hope you really enjoy your day, please note the following to make the most of it:

- Wintershall staff are available at all times in red fluorescent jackets.
- Please arrive up to one hour before the performance to ensure you have a good view, the Square will be closed for cleaning for a short period between the two performances.
- There is a designated disabled area available, please speak to a member of staff on arrival to be directed to this area.
- BSL Interpreters are available on the steps leading up to the National Gallery.
- St John's Ambulance are available in the Square near to the Wintershall Shop (Blue Gazebo)
- The Wintershall Shop (Blue Gazebo) will be offering information on our other plays and projects and you can also buy books, CD's and DVD's. Please come and say hello.
- No formal seating is provided – cushions are available for hire from the Wintershall Shop, please follow the instructions of the Stewards in the Square regarding where it is safe and practical to sit.
- There is a very large video screen in the Square so you will not miss any of the action.
- Please wear clothing appropriate for the weather conditions on the day.
- We will be making a collection after each performance if you would like to donate towards the cost, it costs approximately £7 per person.
- We will be collecting email addresses before each performance as we would like to send you a survey afterwards.
