Welcome

Debbie Thompson, Theatre Director

Hello and welcome to our jam-packed autumn brochure! As usual we are a very busy Little Theatre and this season has a real mix of drama, music and film. Lots to keep you entertained as the nights draw-in.

We have special events to commemorate the First World War centenary starting with 'The Battle of Boat' a touching and exciting new musical which follows a group of children discovering the meaning of being at war. In conjunction with Sheringham Town Council and Sheringham History Group we are hosting a talk by Historian Neil Storey and screenings of two poignant war films – 'Journey's End' and 'Private Peaceful'. Our local community actors are also presenting 'We Will Remember Them' an afternoon of poetry.

We welcome back Cromer and Sheringham Brass Band, CSODS, Playing for Cake, Vamos and fEast Theatre Company. We are presenting two wonderful concerts 'Bringing Back the Good Times' and 'The Songs of Sondheim' plus, due to popular demand, 'An evening with Richard Digance'

Our Youth Group present Roald Dahl's 'Witches' and a Rocky Horror sing-a-long!

For the festive season we welcome the 'Albion Christmas show', A screening from The Royal Opera House of 'The Nutcracker' and our Pantomime. Oh yes, we do! Hot on the heels of last year's successful 'Wizard of Oz', we bring you the classic tale of 'Beauty and the Beast' with all the Panto comedy, mayhem and magic you expect from the team!

Come and enjoy with us the unique intimate atmosphere of our wonderful Little Theatre!

Best wishes

Debbie
Theatre Director

YOUTH THEATRE

The Battle Of Boat

SHERINGHAM LITTLE THEATRE YOUTH GROUP

Thu 20th Sep – Sat 22nd Sep

7.30pm. Matinee Sat 22nd Sep 2.30pm

THE BATTLE OF BOAT IS PRESENTED THROUGH SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT WITH AND ALL AUTHORISED PERFORMANCE MATERIALS ARE SUPPLIED BY THEATRICAL RIGHTS WORLDWIDE (TRW), 122-124 REGENT STREET, 3RD FLOOR, LONDON W1B 5SA. WWW.THEATRICALRIGHTS.CO.UK

The Battle of Boat is a new musical set in 1916. The carefree happiness of a group of young children is short-lived as they find themselves discovering more and more about the First World War unfolding around them. It's a tale of the persistent attempts that the children make to do whatever it takes to help their friend and their country, with weaving, powerful themes of rivalry, leadership and battle. The youthfulness of the cast, and of the nation's young generation lost to the Great War, serve to make the scale and impact of the musical even greater.

"An epic piece of musical theatre!" Jonathan Baz

FILM

Stanley A Man of Variety

Tue 25th Sep

7.30pm

Stanley finds himself in prison for a crime that he believes that he didn't commit. After many years in solitary confinement he begins to talk to his comedy heroes from the past as each one tries to help him remember what he has done. We follow Stanley through his journey of hallucinations as he faces up to his unusual upbringing and his parents' bizarre religious beliefs.

Award-winning actor Timothy Spall plays Stanley and all the characters in his hallucinations; from the flamboyant Noel Coward to the grotesque Max Wall to the ukulele king George Formby, to Egor in a Transylvanian castle.

Julie

ENCORE

NATIONAL THEATRE COMPANY

Wed 26th Sep

7.00pm

Wild and newly single, Julie throws a late-night party. In the kitchen, Jean and Kristina clean up as the celebration heaves above them. Crossing the threshold, Julie initiates a power game with Jean – which rapidly descends into a savage fight for survival.

This new version of August Strindberg's play Miss Julie, written by Polly Stenham, remains shocking and fiercely relevant in its new setting of contemporary London.

Vanessa Kirby (The Crown, NT Live: A Streetcar Named Desire) and Eric Kofi Abrefa (The Amen Corner) feature in the cast of this brand new production, directed by Carrie Cracknell (NT Live: The Deep Blue Sea) and broadcast live from the National Theatre to cinemas.

THEATRE SCREENING

King Lear

ENCORE

Fri 12th Oct

7.00pm

Broadcast from London's West End, see Ian McKellen's 'extraordinarily moving portrayal' (Independent) of King Lear in cinemas. Chichester Festival Theatre's production received five-star reviews for its sell-out run, and transfers to the West End for a limited season. Jonathan Munby directs this contemporary retelling of Shakespeare's tender, violent, moving and shocking play. Considered by many to be the greatest tragedy ever written, King Lear sees two ageing fathers – one a King, one his courtier – reject the children who truly love them. Their blindness unleashes a tornado of pitiless ambition and treachery, as family and state are plunged into a violent power struggle with bitter ends.

YOUTH PRODUCTION

The Witches

SHERINGHAM LITTLE THEATRE YOUTH GROUP

Thu 25th Oct – Sat 27th Oct7.30pm, 2.30pm matinee on Saturday

Witches absolutely detest children. To a witch, a child smells like dogs' droppings. And now the Grand High Witch is planning to get rid of every child in England – can anybody stop them?

The Witches tells the story of a brave young boy and his Norwegian grandmother as they battle against England's child-hating witches. It continues to feature in lists dedicated to the scariest children's books more than 30 years after it was first published. Especially around Halloween. When he was a child himself, Roald Dahl used to spend every summer holiday with his family in Norway, where he was inspired by bedtime stories of witches and magic.

JAZZ AT THE HUB

Norfolk Jazz Quintet

Sun 28th Oct7.30pm

The Norfolk Jazz Quintet is the sister band of the Norfolk Jazz Quartet but benefits from the addition of Bill Brewer's skilful trombone playing. The band plays standards from across the jazz spectrum and the concert at both venues are part of the Norfolk Black History Month series of events. The theme of this year's festival is the "Windrush Generation", a reference to the ship that brought people to the UK in the late 1940's. The band will play a selection of jazz from the "Windrush" era and will include music by people such as Louis Armstrong, Sidney Bechet, Benny Goodman, Duke Ellington, Sonny Rollins and Stan Getz.

Journey's End 12A

Sat 10th Nov

7.30pm

Set in a dugout in Aisne in 1918, this is the story of a group of British officers as they await their fate. War draws to a close and an unlucky group of British soldiers are stuck in the trenches near Saint-Quentin following the infamous Operation Michael. Led by Captain Stanhope (Sam Claflin), whose mental instability and heavy drinking habit make him something of a wild card, the future of these young men is on shaky ground. As claustrophobia sets in and the enemy draws closer, tension begins to rise as the soldiers must stand up and face their journey's end.

We Will Remember Them

PRESENTED BY COMMUNITY ACTORS

Sun 18th Nov

5.00pm

Out of the mud there came poppies. Out of the horror there came heroism. Out of the stinking mud of the trenches there came camaraderie. Out of young heroes there came words, written on scraps of paper, written in desperation, so poignant, so agonising, that we still feel their impact one hundred years later. One hundred years after the Armistice, We Will Remember Them, through their own words. This commemorative event will include some of the poems from the war poets, such as, Wilfred Owen, Rupert Brooke, Laurence Binyon and John McRae. Join us as we commemorate the centenary of the Armistice, and pay tribute to the fallen, the injured and all those to whom we owe our freedom.

The Madness of George III

LIVE

Tue 20th Nov

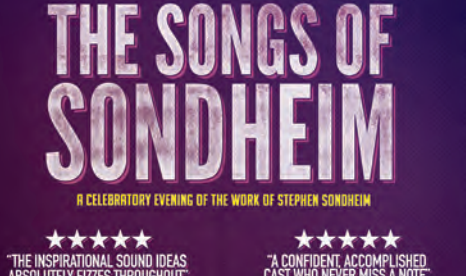

7.00pm

Multi-award-winning drama The Madness of George III will be broadcast live to cinemas, in National Theatre Live's first ever broadcast from Nottingham Playhouse.

Written by one of Britain's best-loved playwrights Alan Bennett. The cast of this new production includes Olivier Award-winners Mark Gatiss (Sherlock, Wolf Hall) in the title role, and Adrian Scarborough (Gavin and Stacey, Upstairs Downstairs).

It's 1786 and King George III is the most powerful man in the world. But his behaviour is becoming erratic as he succumbs to fits of lunacy. With the King's mind unravelling, politicians and the Prince of Wales threaten to undermine the power of the Crown, and expose the fine line between a King and a man.

JAZZ AT THE HUB

Back to Bluenote

Sun 25th Nov

7.30pm

The name says it all. An evening of jazz reflecting the music of the Blue Note Record label, one of the most famous record companies of all time. Set-up in 1939 it originally focused on traditional jazz and small group swing but from around the late nineteen forties began to switch direction to more modern forms of jazz. Over the years it promoted a spectrum of styles and musicians. It is probably principally associated with "hard bop" and stellar musicians such as Sidney Bechet, Dizzy Gillespie, Charlie Parker, Horace Silver, Freddie Hubbard, Lee Morgan, Art Blakey and so on. Wayne Shorter. The list is endless. Tonight's "stellar line-up" will be Martin Eaton (tenor saxophone), Chris Cooper (piano), Andy Doyle (bass) and Robert Masters (drums).

FRIENDLY FACES MEAN YOU ARE NEVER ALONE

Do you want to visit the theatre – but have no-one to go with? Then Sheringham Little Theatre has the answer with its welcoming Friendly Faces scheme.

The new venture is aimed at those who are bereaved, lonely, or just lacking confidence in stepping out to see some live drama, music or a movie. It means there will always be someone to meet you – one of our Friendly Face contact volunteers.

And, if you wish, they can introduce you to others in the same situation, so you are never alone.

Share a table at the interval in your own special group and discuss the event over a drink. We hope it provides a great way to visit the theatre and make friends.

All you have to do is phone the box office on 01263 822347 or drop in and flag up that you would like to join the Friendly Faces group for one of our shows.

We look forward to seeing you.

Joan Thame – Friendly Face co-ordinator
