

The Hut - Property Requirements

A long wooden table is set for dining on a boat deck. The table is made of light-colored wood slats and is set with white plates, silverware, and folded white napkins. Several blue glass tumblers and wine glasses are placed along the table. The background shows a calm sea with a small boat in the distance. The text is overlaid on the image in a dark blue font.

Launched in May 2013, The Hut is a quintessentially English 'beach hut' style restaurant in The Isle of Wight.

Situated on the beach front, the restaurant combines an unrivalled passion for high quality, seasonal food within a relaxed and modern setting. Combining culinary classics with innovative ideas, The Hut offers an exciting approach to beach side dining.
