THE NEW ALBANY Community Foundation

Celebrating 25 years of impact.

Our goal from the beginning was to create a framework that would endure. And to establish priorities that would benefit the people of New Albany for years to come. Built on the pillars of life-long learning, the arts, health and wellness and the environment, we've focused our efforts on what matters most to you. And the results have been extraordinary. The public library, The Jefferson Series, Safety Town and the McCoy Center for the Arts are clear examples of the lasting impact we've created by working together over the last quarter century. And with your continued support, that list will continue to grow.

Welcome to New Albany, Ohio!

We invite you to visit to see for yourself why New Albany was named America’s Best Suburb by Business Insider and one of Ohio’s Best Hometowns by Ohio Magazine.

New Albany’s vibrant town center includes a performing arts center, historical museum, community health center, public library, wetlands and parks and plans for a beautiful outdoor amphitheater. These amenities are connected by 36 miles of walking trails that connect to the city’s Village Center, our shopping and dining district where festivals, walking and running races, farmers’ markets and holiday events regularly occur.

Well known for its iconic white fences and timeless Georgian architecture, New Albany is also home to the largest master planned business park in Ohio. Enclosed you will find a listing of places to eat, shop, stay and meet as well as a calendar of events. You can easily find a place to rest your head, grab a snack, enjoy a little retail therapy, catch a performance or attend a fun event.

You may find it difficult to leave once you have witnessed first-hand the exceptional experience that is New Albany. You and your family, or business, may be calling it home before long!

COMMUNITY.

WHEN PEOPLE COME TOGETHER, GREAT THINGS HAPPEN.

As partners in a master-planned community, New Albany collaborates with our residents and businesses to create a shared vision for the future that brings people together to do more than just live or work. It's a friendly, inclusive community that makes you feel at home, encourages a healthy, active lifestyle, nurtures the creative spirit, invests in lifelong learning, supports business and protects the environment for future generations. It's more than a place, it's a way of life.

Play

With some truly exceptional offerings for recreation, education and entertainment, there's never a dull moment in New Albany. Our parks, trails, sports and wellness programming are some of the best around, and we're not afraid to show them off.

New Albany Leisure Trail System

The majority of New Albany homes are within 1,200 feet of a neighborhood park – a key priority for city planners in the design of our community. This network of parks, sidewalks and trails brings life and vitality to the streets of New Albany. The community's designers made a point of preserving New Albany's pastoral appeal by maintaining more than 600 acres of park land and 900 acres of green space, totaling 45-plus miles of leisure trails for the enjoyment of residents, visitors and Business Park employees.

Village Center

The results of New Albany's effort to develop a vibrant Village Center have only become more and more impressive over time. Based on a master plan established in 2006, the Village Center offers a mix of retail, dining, entertainment, residential and office uses, as well as public amenities including the Rose Run Corridor Greenway, all connected by walkable streets and paths. Split into five districts, the Village Center is anchored by Market Square, which has become the community's main gathering place.

Rose Run Park

The result of more than 20 years of planning, Rose Run Park serves as a central connection to the many highlights of New Albany's Village Center. Features include a sizable plaza for events, library garden for outdoor activities, assortment of kid-friendly recreational components within a wooded glen and trail, stream-spanning bridge offering safe crossing between the park and the New Albany Learning Campus, and a bike hub. The first phase was completed in 2019.

New Albany Parks & Recreation

Providing a vast array of sport and recreational opportunities for adults and children, New Albany Parks & Recreation encompasses more than 200 acres of parkland across three community parks. These recreation offerings, operated by the New Albany-Plain Local Joint Park District, include 38 sporting fields, as well as tennis and basketball courts, walking trails, playgrounds, pavilions, concession stands and a public fireplace. In addition to regular events such as the Summer Movie Series, our community's parks – Bevelhymmer Park, Thompson Park and Wexner Community Park – offer adult and youth sporting leagues.

Rocky Fork Metro Park

New Albany's first Metro Park, Rocky Fork Metro Park, opened in 2015, thanks to a partnership between the city, Plain Township, Franklin County Metro Parks and the city of Columbus. The city worked closely with Metro Parks to develop, fund and build the first dog park in New Albany, found at the entrance of the 1,200-plus acre park. Other highlights include recreational trails, horse trails, an off-leash dog trail, a playground, a splash pad and a shelter house.

metroparks.net/parks-and-trails/rocky-fork

Cycling

With the city's continual work to offer more opportunities to both neophyte and experienced cyclists, it's no wonder more riders in the annual bike ride fundraiser

Pelotonia come from New Albany than from any other community in Ohio. The city is home to some 40 miles of paved bike trails, and is diligently adding sharrows and bike lanes, making it easy for residents to quickly make their way from New Albany's beautiful neighborhoods to quiet country roads. The Philip Heit Center for Healthy New Albany and other spots in and around the Village Center are popular gathering spots for informal cycling groups, as well as dedicated pelotons such as L Brands, Girls with Gears and the New Albany Cycling Club.

Golf

New Albany residents and visitors have great golfing options at an assortment of gorgeous, high-quality courses. The links in our community include:

New Albany Country Club: An enduring central part of the New Albany community, the New Albany Country Club offers a 27-hole golf course designed by Jack Nicklaus. The country club also features tennis, croquet, bocce ball and a fitness center, on top of top-notch dining and premier spaces for meetings and special events.

New Albany Links Golf Club: An 18-hole golf course winds its way through natural rolling terrain, creeks, lakes, wetlands, native grasses and mature trees at this semi-private golf club. The course is open to the public, but maintains a country club atmosphere and playability.

New Albany Tennis Center

Part of the community for almost 30 years, the New Albany Tennis Center offers instructional courses for adults, seniors and children in grades K-12. This award-winning facility has an amazing track record of success, including four alumni who have gone on to achieve world rankings in the ATP/WTA Pro Tours. The tennis center also presents central Ohio's only year-round public tennis program, with some of the most affordable court rental rates in the area.

Plain Township Aquatic Center

Situated in a park-like setting, the Plain Township Aquatic Center features an eight-lane competition pool, a zero-depth entry with water sprays and shooting fountains, two 28-foot water slides and a fenced-in interactive play area equipped with slides, a waterfall, a tunnel, water guns, tipping buckets and water wheels for small children. In addition to these amenities, the center also offers great parking options, a main entry building for check-in, separate restroom facilities with showers and lockers, a picnic area, lounge chairs, tables, umbrellas, concessions and vending machines.

Philip Heit Center for Healthy New Albany

Opening its doors in 2015, the Philip Heit Center for Healthy New Albany clearly demonstrates the community's strong commitment to health and wellness. Resulting from a partnership among Healthy New Albany, Nationwide Children's Hospital and The Ohio State University Wexner Medical Center, the Heit Center is home to a world-class fitness facility, a top-notch rehabilitation center, highly trained personnel for wellness coaching, meeting spaces and even a kitchen for healthful eating classes.

The Arts in New Albany

Our community works hard to offer opportunities in the visual and performing arts that you won't find anywhere else. From our premier venues for big-name artists and local performers, to our exceptional arts galleries and dance studios, New Albany is a city that understands the importance of the arts and how they can enrich the community.

Jeanne B. McCoy Community Center for the Arts

Though the concept began as an event space for the New Albany-Plain Local School District, plans for the Jeanne B. McCoy Community Center for the Arts evolved to become a premier community space for education and the arts. Today, the McCoy Center hosts speakers and performers of international acclaim, as well as local arts and instructional groups. McCoy Center engagements over the course of the year include:

The New Albany Community Foundation's Jefferson Series, with recent speakers including Madeleine Albright, Colin Powell, Fareed Zakaria and Glenn Close. And the New Albany Symphony Orchestra, New Albany's community musical ensemble.

New Albany Symphony Orchestra

Founded in 2007, the New Albany Symphony Orchestra presents a musical experience unlike any other. Not only does it bring the community innovative performances and familiar favorites, it also offers sensory-friendly versions of its regular-season performances. These productions, funded by a PNC Arts Alive grant, are hour-long shows for those who may not be able to enjoy a traditional symphony performance.

Dance

Celebrating its 20-year anniversary in 2019, the New Albany Ballet Company presents ballet lessons from the children’s level to the pre-professional level, as well as classes in jazz, modern, hip-hop and tap dance. From the company’s skilled, highly experienced teaching staff to the annual production of The Nutcracker put on by its New Albany Children’s Ballet Theatre, the organization has enjoyed enormous popularity over the years, leading to new a state-of-the-art studio on Forest Drive in 2016.

For young people who have dreams of the stage, Broadway Bound Dance Centre has, for more than 25 years, offered a vast array of dance classes for children from toddlers through high school seniors. With a strong track record of alumni who have gone on to compete and perform on a national level, Broadway Bound serves up classes in ballet, jazz, tap, lyrical, contemporary and hip-hop dance, as well as cheer, tumbling, stretch and conditioning classes.

Hayley Gallery

Representing more than 65 emerging and established local artists, Hayley Gallery has been presenting diverse work in a variety of mediums since 2007. As one of central Ohio’s premier galleries, patrons are often able to find works inspired by the streets on which they walk every day, helping to demonstrate our community’s strong focus on the arts. Since moving to a new location on Market Street, Hayley Gallery has put local artists front and center for residents and visitors.

Charleen and Charles Hinson Amphitheater

An exciting newcomer to New Albany’s performing arts scene, the Charleen and Charles Hinson Amphitheater is being constructed adjacent to the McCoy Center. The 800-seat outdoor performance venue has the same dimensions as the McCoy Center, and will host the same caliber of performers, bringing New Albany one step closer to having its own arts district. The anticipated groundbreaking is right around the corner for this transformative addition to the community’s cultural offerings.

Learn

In New Albany, our schools and the educational opportunities they offer to our children are a top priority. But the learning doesn't end there – in New Albany, there's no end to the chances to learn. Whether it's about our community, your health or some of the major issues facing the nation and world today, there are fascinating ways to learn about it in-depth here.

New Albany-Plain Local School District

Consistently ranked among the top school districts in the state of Ohio, the New Albany-Plain Local School District is a meticulously master-planned district, with all grade levels attending classes on a single Learning Campus. Despite its high ranking – not to mention the success of its student body, with each graduating class achieving $2 million-plus in scholarship money – the district has ambitious strategies in place to continue its ascent, and position itself among the top 5 percent statewide by 2021. Among the resources available to students are a fabrication lab, an engineering/ environment/energy lab and the McCoy Center, which is situated on the campus.

Marburn Academy

A visionary educational institution serving students from 30-plus school districts around central Ohio, Marburn Academy offers specialized instruction for students whose learning differences have made traditional school environments challenging for them. Marburn, founded almost 40 years ago, opened a 64,000-square-foot new home in New Albany in 2017. Enrolling fewer than 300 students in grades 1-12, the private, not-for-profit school has earned accreditation from a variety of prestigious organizations, and has helped children with dyslexia, ADHD, executive function difficulties and similar challenges achieve success.

Columbus Jewish Day School

Serving grades K-6, the Columbus Jewish Day School has been offering an exceptional education to children of the Jewish faith for more than 20 years. The school's approach to education focuses on rigorous curriculum, social responsibility and showing every child that all their questions and ideas have value. It uses these values to help all of its students discover their authentic selves and be prepared to continue their education at the highest levels.

Charlotte P. Kessler New Albany Library

Located right on Market Square, the Charlotte P. Kessler New Albany Library is a branch of the award-winning Columbus Metropolitan Library system. The library opened at its current location in 2003, following an effort by the library system and the New Albany Community Foundation to endow more than $1 million for book collections and technology enhancements. Offering a variety of reading clubs, story times, job help programs and more, the library is a pivotal part of New Albany's educational community.

New Albany Well-Being Initiative

A joint effort formulated by community leaders and New Albany-Plain Local Schools, the New Albany Well-Being Initiative combines New Albany's twin commitments to health and education into one endeavor to maximize the wellness of local students. The initiative offers students a vast library of resources focused on drug education and prevention, as well as on mental health and developmental education.

The Jefferson Series

Promoting lifelong learning in New Albany since 2014, the Jefferson Series brings speakers of national and international renown to the McCoy Center to speak on major topics with unmatched insight and expertise. The series, coordinated by the New Albany Community Foundation, has brought such speakers as neurosurgeon and CNN analyst Dr. Sanjay Gupta, former CIA director Gen. David Petraeus and actress-turned-mental-health-advocate Mariel Hemingway.

TEDxNewAlbany

Every year, New Albany-Plain Local School District students organize their own local chapter of TEDx, part of a global series of programs aimed at sharing "ideas worth spreading." New Albany students have impressed the community year after year with their ambition and organizational acumen, hosting a variety of speakers, including influential community members and standout students from around central Ohio, at a day-long event.

Leadership New Albany

Leadership New Albany is a community leadership development program offered by the New Albany Chamber of Commerce to existing and emerging leaders. The 8-month program (January-August) takes participants on a journey to increase their knowledge of New Albany's past and present, and gain a better understanding of the New Albany business, economic, civic and government landscape. Local leaders share business and leadership insights through presentations, interactive sessions, panel discussions and behind-the-scenes tours.

Criteria

The ideal participant is a mid- to high-level leader with significant career and community achievements. Leadership New Albany seeks applicants who are willing to commit the time, energy and resources necessary to actively participate in, and graduate from, the program. The goal is to graduate leaders who are knowledgeable and informed about issues that affect New Albany.

Commitment

Attendance is required so that the entire class receives a meaningful experience from their investment. Class members and their employers must be willing to commit the necessary time to fully participate in the program. To graduate, a participant may not miss more than one session.

LEAD NOW

LEAD NOW is a leadership development program from Focus 3 that teaches "the physics of leadership." Participants develop leadership skills that include this specific, systematic combination of interacting behaviors. LEAD NOW is actively used by many elite leaders around the world in dozens of industry environments, generating millions of dollars in revenue, winning championships and saving lives.

Ealy House Museum

New Albany wasn't always an affluent community that set the bar in terms of health, education and quality of life, and its humble beginnings are on display at the George and Christina Ealy House. The museum, restored by the New Albany-Plain Township Historical Society, is situated in the former home of the Ealy family, which came to Ohio from Pennsylvania in 1830 and built the house 30 years later. Tours by appointment.

Live

Ohio Magazine named New Albany the Best Hometown in 2018-19, and when you look at the quality of life here, that victory is no mystery. The city sets itself apart with some incredible real estate offerings in both the residential and commercial sectors, as well as heavy emphases on health, wellness and community togetherness.

Real Estate

New Albany's robust real estate scene helps illustrate our community's one-of-a-kind status. With average residential home sales in the mid-$400,000s – neighborhoods that distinguish themselves with unique features but still adhere to master-planned New Albany aesthetic and some truly jaw-dropping homes on the market at any given time – it's easy to see why New Albany has been recognized as the best suburb in the country.

Of course, New Albany's commercial real estate scene is attention-grabbing as well. With a total of seven corporate headquarters within the city limits and more than 30,000 daily COTA commuters, the business community here only continues to grow. Then there's the 4,000-acre-plus New Albany International Business Park, one of the biggest master-planned business parks in the country, with more than 15,000 employees and 10 million square feet of office space – a truly impressive feather in New Albany's cap.

Work

New Albany offers a carefully calibrated mix of infrastructure, services, amenities and incentives that attract and retain a remarkable range of businesses. Countless global companies, R&D facilities, professional services, manufacturing and logistics companies, data centers, and entrepreneurial enterprises are all headquartered in the city of New Albany.

From the pedestrian-friendly Market Square with restaurants, cafes and shops to our large expanses of technology-ready, shovel-ready sites and 50+ miles of leisure trails, it's easy to see why New Albany is a popular choice for corporate headquarters.

In just 20 years, the New Albany International Business Park has become the fastest-growing master-planned park in the region and an important economic engine for the entire state of Ohio. New Albany and its partners have transformed corn fields into 11.5 million square feet of commercial space representing more than $3.4 billion in private investment.

Curious about ways to get involved in our fair community? With New Albany's lengthy line-up of opportunities for civic engagement, the only challenging part will be narrowing down the list! Our nonprofits, service organizations and community-building endeavors cover everything from day-to-day safety to major improvement projects.

New Albany Food Pantry

Serving families and individuals in need within the New Albany-Plain Local School District, the New Albany Food Pantry invites qualifying individuals to get their groceries during set weekly hours, as well as by request in emergencies. The pantry is always appreciative of help, and accepts donation of food and money, in addition to welcoming any volunteers. It also coordinates weekly food drops during the summer, and partners with the New Albany Community Garden and Philip Heit Center for Healthy New Albany for programming.

Kiwanis Club of New Albany

Officially formed in 2013, the Kiwanis Club of New Albany is dedicated to the principles of the international Kiwanis organization: improving the lives of children, one child at a time. The club helps out with a variety of area service projects, such as fundraising endeavors, leadership classes for kids and Arbor Day tree plantings.

LifeTown Columbus

Headquartered at the Lori Schottenstein Chabad Center here in New Albany, LifeTown is a realistic indoor city designed specifically for children with special needs to practice life skills in a fun way. Available to children all throughout central Ohio, LifeTown is one of only two such facilities in the entire country – right here in our community.

New Albany-Plain Township Historical Society

Tracking the history of our city since 1975, the New Albany-Plain Township Historical Society was founded to bring people together through understanding of our community’s history. The historical society’s efforts to collect and preserve artifacts, documents and oral accounts ensures that the history of New Albany – and its evolution from small farming community to thriving, upscale suburb – is not forgotten.

New Albany Community Events Board

For the past 15 years, the New Albany Community Events Board has planned, promoted and managed a variety of special events in the city. The events currently under its umbrella are the Springfest Egg Hunt, the Fourth of July Celebration and New Albany Oktoberfest.

New Albany Community Foundation

A critical part of the city’s development over the last quarter-century, the New Albany Community Foundation was founded in 1995 as a means of encouraging the continual growth of New Albany. The foundation has four strategic areas of impact: lifelong learning, arts and culture, health and wellness, and sustainable environment and historic preservation. The foundation has become ingrained in the advancement of New Albany, making formative efforts possible such as the Charleen and Charles Hinson Amphitheater, Jefferson Series, New Albany Safety Town, and the New Albany Well-Being Initiative.

New Albany Community Garden

Starting out with just 16 plots in its inaugural year of 2011, the New Albany Community Garden now boasts 50 raised garden beds, including children’s plots, for members of the community. And it’s more than just a place for those without gardens to grow their own food and other plants; it also features a locked tool storage shed, rain barrel system and Herb Demonstration Garden, along with an annual potluck dinner. On top of that, all surplus harvest is donated to the New Albany Food Pantry.

New Albany Neighborhood Bridges

Neighborhood Bridges is a program across multiple central Ohio suburbs, as well as a handful in Alabama, that gives residents the opportunity to help neighbors in need. New Albany's chapter allows the posting of community members' specific needs – such as clothing, replacements for items lost in fires and school-related fees – that other residents can then meet.

New Albany Pet Rescue

New Albany Pet Rescue is a volunteer group that focuses on preventing dogs and cats of all ages from being euthanized. The organization accomplishes this with a network of foster homes, as well as individuals willing to temporarily board these animals until a foster home can be found. It also accepts donations of cash, collars, leashes, pet food, toys and more.

New Albany Walking Club

Part of the effort to continually promote health in New Albany, the New Albany Walking Club organizes group walks, health and training seminars, organized training programs for aspiring racers, and participation in walking-only races such as the New Albany Walking Classic. The club meets year-round, setting out at 7:30 a.m. every Sunday on varying routes through the community, providing opportunities for fitness and camaraderie among participants.

New Albany Women's Network

With more than 20 years of history, the New Albany Women's Network has grown from 10 members to more than 350, and from a general mission of bringing women together to a larger mission of enriching the community through social, charitable and educational outreach. Today, the organization raises money for the New Albany Food Pantry as well as for scholarships, and puts on signature community events including An Evening in New Albany and a charitable fashion show.

Rotary Club of New Albany

Part of an international network of clubs dedicated to the betterment of their communities and the world at large, the Rotary Club of New Albany works toward causes aimed at improving the community through service and fellowship. Meeting the first and third Wednesday of each month at Wesley Woods at New Albany, the New Albany Rotary Club emphasizes charity and community service, and also organizes special events such as a wine and cheese social event to raise money to fight polio.

OF NEW ALBANY

The staff is great and the chef is excellent! He not only makes good meals, but is flexible with my special requests. And gardening is one of my passions, so I'm happy I can still garden outside in the spring. My caregiver is the best – he is so kind and considerate and still gives me privacy when I need it.
