The First Aid Officer is:

- Dom Chambers

First Aid Boxes are located as follows:-

- In the kitchen area

The Health & Safety Officer is responsible for ensuring that they are adequately stocked at all times. Inform the Health & Safety Officer as soon as possible after using anything from the First Aid Box so that replenishments can be ordered.

If you have or become aware of an accident at work, however minor, you must notify the Health & Safety Officer or, if he is not available, the Station Manager.

The Health & Safety Officer or Station Manager, will enter a record of the accident in the Accident Book.

If you have an accident, however minor, you should seek the advice and assistance of a First Aid Officer.

Health & Safety Risks arising from Work Activities

Risk assessments will be undertaken by the Health & Safety Officer at least once a year.

There is specific working legislation covering working conditions for people who work regularly with computer display screens. The legislation covers all aspects of the person's 'work station', equipment, lighting and noise – in addition to the provision of information, training and eye tests. If you are unhappy with any aspect of your work station you should bring this to the attention of the Health & Safety Officer.

The findings of the risks assessments will be reported to the Station Manager, who will approve any action required to remove or control risks.

As part of their induction process new volunteers are made aware by the Station Manager/Health & Safety Officer of all potential risks associated with the technical equipment or the premises in general.

Safety of Equipment

Any problems with equipment should be reported to the Technical & Equipment Officer.

Fire

Preparation:

The Health & Safety Officer is responsible for ensuring that an annual fire risk assessment is undertaken and implemented.

Fire extinguishers are maintained and checked annually.

The Health & Safety Officer will test the fire alarms periodically, warning staff in advance. Fire extinguishers and a fire blanket are provided throughout the company's premises, and you must familiarise yourself with their location and methods of operation.

If you discover a Fire:

- Immediately notify reception and/or the Health & Safety Officer
- Attempt to fight the fire if possible without taking personal risks; and
- Evacuate the premises.

On being notified of a fire, the receptionist/Health & Safety Officer will:-

- Sound the alarm; then
- Call the Fire Brigade

Emergency Evacuation Procedure

Upon hearing the alarm or being informed that there is a fire or other need for emergency evacuation, you must:-

- Evacuate the premises by the nearest available route;
- Close all doors and windows as you leave
- Report to the assembly point which is outside Eye-Tech at the bottom of St Chads Avenue.

OPERATIONAL RISK – SOMER VALLEY FM

All Somer Valley volunteers must agree to operate within these guidelines. Overview

Like any business, Somer Valley FM is exposed to risk.

Mistakes made in our day to day operations can give rise to prosecutions, claims and complaints, all of which could damage our reputation and financial security and could result in the loss of the company's broadcasting licence. These are called operational risks.

The following directives, which must be followed, comprise risk management procedures:-

- All equipment is owned by Somer Valley FM. The purpose of the station is to provide an environment in which all participants can achieve their potential. This ethic is endorsed by collective responsibility to look after and maintain all station equipment. It is the duty of all volunteers to report any damage or malfunction to the station manager or the technical support via tech@somervalleyfm.co.uk
- At the outset, presenters are given guidance by the Station Manager and other designated trainers. No presenter will be authorised to broadcast unless and until the Station Manager is satisfied that he/she has sufficient understanding of the technical equipment to be used and of basic broadcasting rules and regulations. Unauthorised alteration of equipment settings is forbidden.
- No software may be downloaded or installed on Station PC's, and no new material may be uploaded onto the Audiowall unless expressly authorised by the Station Manager or the Production Manager
- No programme may be broadcast unless one or more pilot versions of it have been evaluated and approved by the Station Manager.
- All programmes on Somer Valley FM are aired at the discretion of the Station Manager.
- Presenters must arrive at Somer Valley FM premises at least 15 minutes before the start of their programme, and ensure that they advise the Station Manager, or other staff, as soon as possible of any likely absence in consequence of ill health or other unforeseen event.
- Presenters are responsible for their programmes and for the conduct of their guests and visitors.
- Assume that you are 'live' at all times.

- All presenters must be familiar with the content of the material to be broadcast, and must ensure that the content is free of lyrics or statements which may cause offence, whether by the use of bad language or discriminatory or biased attitude.
- Guests and members of the public should only be put 'on air' with their prior knowledge, consent and studio briefing.
- Your attention is drawn to our policy on smoking, alcohol and drugs.
- Without the express consent of the Station Manager there must be no material change in the format of the programme from that approved in a pilot version.
- Presenters with repeat shows must inform listeners whilst live that they might be listening to a repeated programme.
- Presenters must make it clear that if they are unable to accommodate listeners requests during a particular programme, those requests will be carried forward to the next relevant programme.
- Presenters must check that their show is followed by either another live show or the log.
- The law relating to competitions is complex. Any presenter wishing to introduce a competition to his/her programme must receive the prior approval of the Station Manager.
- Unless with the consent of the Station Manager, presenters must provide a minimum of 14 days notice of an intention to take holidays
- Maintaining the high reputation of Somer Valley FM is in the best interests of everyone. All personnel, whether employees or volunteers, must do all that they can to avoid bringing the reputation of Somer Valley FM into disrepute,
- There must not be any 'on air' reference to advertisers outside of scheduled advertising packages.
- References to Somer Valley FM, whether verbal or written, must be made responsibly and positively.
- All personnel must remember that Somer Valley FM Community Radio Limited is the owner of all intellectual property rights associated with the Station which includes all broadcast or in-house productions.
- Press releases and all intended approaches to venues (music, theatre etc) for tickets or access to artists for interviews, must be approved in advance by the Station Manager.
- All personnel, whether employees or volunteers must bring to the early attention of the Station Manager any complaints or criticisms that may be expressed by members of the public in connection with Somer Valley FM

Adhering to these directives, will help secure the future of Somer Valley FM for employees, volunteers and, most importantly, the local communities.

CHILD PROTECTION POLICY

Somer Valley FM believes that the health, safety and wellbeing of all children and young people is of paramount importance.

One of the social gain objectives of Somer Valley FM is:-

'the provision (whether by means of programmes included in the service or otherwise) of educational training to individuals not employed by the person providing the service'.

We seek to achieve this objective by:-

- (i) Formal work placement opportunities such as traineeships
- (ii) Customised training to help an individual fulfil their potential and achieve their aspirations.
- (iii) Group training for school students.

In consequence of this objective, children and young people will be regular visitors to the Station, whether as individuals or volunteer presenters.

A child/young person is defined as a person under the age of 18 (Children's Act 1989).

The aim of this policy is to promote good practice, providing children and young people with appropriate safety/protection whilst in the care of Somer Valley FM. Good practice means:-

- Ensuring that staff and trainers receive certificated child protection training ever three years
- Ensuring that under 16's are supervised by a responsible adult while on the premises or at an outside event
- Establishing parental / career consent to under 16's attending Somer Valley FM's premises and outside events
- Always working in an open environment e.g. avoiding private or unobserved situations and encouraging open communication with no secrets
- Treating all young people/disabled adults equally and with respect and dignity
- Always putting the welfare of each young person first, before winning or achieving goals
- Involving parents/teachers wherever possible and ensuring, unless otherwise expressly authorised by the Station Manager, that children/young persons are at all times under the supervision of responsible adults
- Being an excellent role model – this includes not smoking or drinking alcohol in the company of young people

- Keeping a written record of any injury that occurs, along with the details of any treatment given
- Acting upon and recording any allegations made by a child

Somer Valley FM has appointed Dom Chambers as its nominated Child Protection Co-ordinator. He has undertaken appropriate child protection training. Any suspicion that a child/young person has been subjected to abuse or harm must be reported immediately to the Child Protection Co-ordinator who will take such steps as he considers necessary to ensure the safety of the child in question and any other child who may be at risk, and who will refer all suspicions and allegations to professional agencies that are responsible for child protection.
