CITY TAVERN

When CITY TAVERN first opened its doors in 1773, Philadelphia was the largest, most cosmopolitan city in British North America. The American Colonies were about to throw off the yoke of British rule in what became the most important revolution the world had ever seen.

In 1787, the Constitutional Convention convened in the State House. Washington, President of the Convention, attended concerns and dined at CITY TAVERN. The delegates used the tavern as a discussion center and gathering place, just as during the Continental Congresses. At the close of the Convention, Philadelphian troops selected CITY TAVERN as the site of their "splendid entertainment" honoring General George Washington. The delegates also held their farewell dinner here in the same room where, ten years prior, they had celebrated the very first Fourth of July. Men like George Washington, John Adams, Thomas Jefferson & others whose names have become an integral part of history enjoyed its hospitality. In fact Adams once called it "the most genteel tavern in America."

Today, the reconstructed CITY TAVERN continues to capture the atmosphere and ambiance of its 18th Century beginnings. Colonial Philadelphia comes alive when you enter its doors. Within the refined and elegant atmosphere, our chefs and wait staff have prepared an exceptional dining experience for you to savor and enjoy.
