

Alice and Adam from Aldridge were looking for the right contractors to extend and refurbish their home. This is their story.

THE PROJECT: KITCHEN EXTENSION & INTERNAL REFURBISHMENT

"Our architect recommended DHP Construction which gave us immense confidence from the start. We visited one of DHP's previous jobs and we were impressed with the finish and the feedback from the home owner.

We got a few other quotes, just to make sure they were competitive, but Paul's willingness to work around our schedule, competitive price and overall knowledge led us to award DHP with our project."

THE DHP APPROACH

"Right from the start the whole team were excellent to deal with. Paul got back to us immediately and was regularly on site.

Even when there were problems with water at the foundations Paul and the team dealt with it professionally and efficiently with minimal extra cost.

There were many different tradesmen for different professions and all of them were excellent.

DHP were great at communication, always keeping us in the loop and giving regular project updates. The team were always on time and were friendly and very helpful."

"We have already recommended DHP to our friends!"
