- Unfortunately, we do not offer an Express Delivery option on European deliveries. Once your parcel has arrived in your country, it will be passed on to an internal postal service, according to standard delivery procedures.

Prayer to Our Lady of Knock

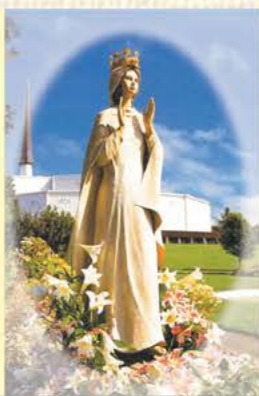

Our Lady of Knock, Queen of Ireland, you gave hope to your people in a time of distress and comforted them in sorrow.

You have inspired countless pilgrims to pray with confidence to your Divine Son, remembering His promise: "And you shall receive, and you shall find."

Help me to remember that we are all pilgrims on the road to Heaven. Fill me with love and concern for my brethren and sisters in Christ, especially those who live with me.

Comfort me when I am sick or lonely or depressed. Teach me how to take part ever more reverently in the Holy Mass. Give me a greater love of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. Pray for me now and at the hour of my death. Amen.

Rest In Peace

Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her soul may her soul and all the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace.

Thou hast made us O Lord, for Christ and our hearts shall find no rest till they rest in Thee.

We did not see you close your eyes. We did not see you die. All we knew was that you were gone. Without a last goodbye.

It was a sudden parting. Too bitter to forget. Only those who loved you. Are the ones who will never forget.

The happy hours we once enjoyed. How sweet their memory still. But death has left a vacant place. This world can never fill.

Your life was one of kindly deeds. A helping hand for others' needs. Sincere and true in heart and mind. Beautiful memories left behind.

Remembering

Everybody lives to be remembered. But if we want to be remembered we have a duty also to remember.

Memory is a powerful thing. Wholly used it can bring death rather than life. Rightly used it is a form of immortality. It keeps the past alive.

Those we remember never die. They continue to walk and talk with us. Their influence is still felt among us. There is nothing stronger or more helpful than a good remembrance.

We want you to know that we haven't forgotten you. We remember you, and your memory most definitely brings life to us today.

May it also assure an ill life for you, that eternal life Christ came in earth to give to us.

Thou hast made us O Lord for Thyself and our hearts shall find no rest till they rest in Thee.

Distance takes us far apart And darkens my today. I have to keep remembering - You're just a thought away.

When the world is too confusing. Times are hard to bear. I pull your precious meaning. Your bright spirit, from the air.

If I sometimes drift into A lonely state of mind. I gather up the memories Of days we left behind.

And though you're not beside me. I can tap into my heart And from upon the warmth and love That lives when we're apart.

And with those fond reflections On the times when you were near. I sense a little bit of what It's like to have you here.

Your life was love and labour, Your love for your family true. You did your best for all of us. We will always remember you.

God saw you getting tired. When a cure was not to be. He closed his arms around you. And whispered "Come to Me!"

Our lives are all so different now. From what they used to be. All because you are not here. To share our company.

Life brings us happiness. But can quickly turn unkind. It brings a grief that's hard to bear. For loved ones left behind.

Your resting place we visit. We place some flowers with care. But no one knows the heartache. As we turn and leave you there.

Will I ask of you is that whenever you may be, you will remember me at Mass and at Holy Communion?

Do not stand at my grave and weep, I am not there, I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow. I am the diamond glint on snow, I am the sunlight on ripened grain I am the gentle autumn rain. When you awaken in the morning hush, I am the swift uplifting rush Of quiet birds in circled flight. I am the soft stars that shine at night. Do not stand at my grave and cry, I am not there, I did not die.

You were strong through all your fears, And for you we shed so many tears. Now your suffering has gone away, You are with the Lord this day.

Don't remember me with sadness Don't remember me with tears Remember all the laughter We've had throughout the years. Then when the summer sunshine Anakes the flowers in bloom I'll walk that light from Heaven Around the corners of every room. Do the things we did before. The same in every way. Just whisper a little prayer to me At the dawn of every day. Just think of me as present Don't think of me as past For a father's love's a blessing In death it still can last. Forget your troubles and your worries They're mine forever more I'll watch and care and love you from Heaven's open door. And when your road gets rough and rocky Or you're down and need a crutch Remember I'm right beside you Just an inch too short to touch.

The Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession, was left unaided. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy clemency hear and answer me. Amen.

And He will bless you for your love For all your family. May you have peace and rest at last From every care and woe; And may you sleep in comfort from The winds and rains and snow. We Give Our Loved Ones Back to God

We give our loved ones back to God... And just as He first gave them to us And did not lose them in the giving. So we have not lost them in returning them to Him... For life is eternal, Love is immortal, Death is only a horizon... And a horizon is nothing but the limit of our earthly sight.

Death beckoned her with outstretched hand And whispered softly of "an unknown land" But she was not afraid to go For though the path she did not know She took death's hand without a fear For God who safely brought her here Had promised He would lead the way Into eternity's bright day... You know her love is with you still For she loved you in life and always will. For love like yours can never end Because it is the perfect blend Of joys and sorrows, smiles and tears That just grows stronger with the years. And love like this can never die For you "take it with you to the sky" - So think of your loved one as living above No farther away than your twinkling eye... And now she is happy and free once more And she waits for you at eternity's door.

We hold you close within our hearts, And then you shall remain, To walk with us throughout our lives, Until we meet again. So rest in peace dear loved one, And thank for all you've done, We pray that God has given you, The crown you've truly won.

Love Doesn't Die

Give what's left of me away now that I'm gone. Remember me with a smile and laughter And if you need to cry, cry for your brother and sister, who walk in grief beside you. And when you need me, put your arms around anyone and give to them what you need to give to me.

I want to leave you something... Something better than words or sounds. Look at me in the people I've known or loved or helped in some special way. Let me live in your eyes as well as in your mind. You can love me most by letting love live within the circle of your arms, embracing the frightened ones.

Love doesn't die, people do... So when all I have left of me is love, give me away as best you can, I'll see you at home, where I'll be waiting.

You were so very special and had the nicest ways. You did so very much in life and never asked for praise.

Remembering you is easy, we do it every day, But losing you is the heartache, that never goes away.

You had a smile for everyone, you had a heart of gold, You left the sweetest memories, the world could ever hold.

Life goes on that's true, but it's not the same without you.

Sully the flames of memory tall, Gently we gather and treasure them all. Unseen, unheard, you are always near, so missed, so loved, so very dear.

We think of you in silence We often speak your name, All we have are memories And your picture in a frame. Your memory is our keepsake With which we will never part, God has you in His keeping We have you in our hearts.

Most glorious Martin de Porres, whose burning charity embraced not only the needy, but also the very animals of the field, splendid example of charity, we hail thee and invoke thee!

From that high throne which thou dost occupy, deign to listen to the supplications of thy needy brethren that, by imitating thy virtues, we may live contented in that state in which God has placed us and carrying with strength and courage our cross, we may follow in the footsteps of Our Blessed Redeemer and His most afflicted Mother, that at last we may reach the Kingdom of Heaven through the merits of Our Lord Jesus Christ. FOOTPRINTS

ONE night a man had a dream: he dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky floated scores from his life. For each score he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand, one belonging to him, the other to the LORD. When the last score of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times of his life. This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it. "LORD you said once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me." The LORD replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and would never leave you during your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

The LORD replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and would never leave you during your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her and may her soul and all the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace.

They say there is a reason, They say that time will heal, But neither time nor reason, Will change the way we feel. For no one knows the heartache, That lies beyond our smiles, No one knows how many times, We've broken down and cried. We want to tell you something, So there won't be any doubt, You're so wonderful to think of, But so hard to do without.

O Jesus in Thy infinite mercy and through the prayers of the Blessed Mother of Sorrows, have compassion on the poor suffering souls in Purgatory. Oh! bring comfort to them in their pains, shorten their exile, and conduct them finally into Thy Heavenly Kingdom, where with Thy Saints and Angels they shall praise and glorify Thee for all eternity. Amen.

Merciful Jesus, give her Eternal Rest. "May the perpetual light of Thy glory shine on her."

O Blessed Heart of Jesus, ever present in the Blessed Sacrament, ever consumed with burning love for the poor captive souls in Purgatory, have mercy on the soul of Thy servant, MARY, bring her from the shadows of exile to the bright home of Heaven, where, we trust, Thou and Thy Blessed Mother have woven for her a crown of unending bliss. O Sweet Jesus, for the sake of Thy Bitter Passion and the sorrows of Thine Immaculate Mother, have mercy on her soul and let the light of Thy Countenance shine upon her.

There is perfect joy and beauty
In this everlasting light.
All the pain and grief is over,
Every restless tossing passed.
I am now at peace forever,
Safely home in Heaven at last.
Did you wonder I so calmly
Trod the valley of the shadow?
Oh, but Jesus' love shined
Every dark and fearful glade.
And He came Himself to meet me
In that way so hard to tread,
And with His arm to lean on,
Could I have one doubt or dread?
Then you must not grieve so sadly,
Try to look beyond earth's shadows,
For to meet our Father's Will,
There is work still waiting for you.
So you must not sully wand,
Do it now, while life remains—
You shall rest in Jesus' land.
When that work is all completed,
He will gently call you Home,
Oh, the joy to see you come!

"Thus hast made us O Lord for Thyself and our hearts shall find no rest till they rest in Thee."

A Letter from Heaven
I am writing this from Heaven,
where I dwell with God alone,
When there are no more wars or sadness,
there's just eternal love.
When do not be unhappy, just because I'm not of night,
Remember I am with you every morning, noon and night.
That day I had to leave you when my life on earth was through,
God picked me up and hugged me and He said "welcome here."
God gave me a list of things He wanted for me to do,
And foremost on that list,
was to watch and care for you.
And I will be beside you every day, work and play,
And when you're not I'll be standing there to wipe away the tears.
And when you lie in bed at night,
the day's hours put to flight,
God and I are close to you every moment of the night.
When you think of my life on earth and all those happy years,
Remember you're only human,
they're bound to bring you tears.
Do not be afraid to cry, it does not mean the pain
Remember there would be no flowers unless there was some pain.

*We hold you close within our hearts,
And there you still remain,
Do wait with us throughout our lives,
Until we meet again.
So rest in peace
dear loved one,
And thank for all
you've done,
We pray that God
has given you,
The crown you've truly won.*

And drives away all fear.
In prayer so oft repeated,
Yet never growing old,

Each chapter forms a garland,
To place at Mary's feet;
Fair buds and full-bloom roses,
Exhaling fragrance sweet.
The Crucifix which crowns it
Reminds me day by day
To bravely bear my crosses,
Along earth's rugged way.
I hope when life is ended,
And death shall set me free
Still twined around my fingers,
Will be my rosary.

With secret tears will flow,
Oh, how we really loved you,

We miss the things you used to say,
And when old times give us recall,
It's then we miss your most of all.*

*You were always there when we needed you,
No task too great or small,
With loving heart and willing hands,
For us you did it all.*

Put your arms around him
And hold him for a while.*

I found that peace at close of day,
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy,
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, those things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow,
My life's been full, I've answered much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief,
Lift up your hearts and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

HIS JOURNEY'S JUST BEGUN
Don't think of him as gone away
his journey's just begun.
Life holds so many facets
this earth is only one.
Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears.
In a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.
Think how he must be wishing that we could know today,
How nothing but our sadness can really pass away.
And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched...
For nothing loved is ever lost and he was loved so much.

Footprints

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky floated scenes from his life. For each scene he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand: one belonging to him, the other to the LORD.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times of his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it. "LORD you said once I looked to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints! I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me!"

The LORD replied, "My precious child, I love you and would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

To live in the hearts of those we love is not to die.

Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place all my trust in Thee

This has made us O Lord, for Thyself and our hearts shall find no rest till they rest in Thee

Think of stepping on the shore and finding it Heaven;
Of taking hold of a hand and finding it God's hand;
Of breathing a new air and finding it celestial air;
Of feeling invigorated and finding it immortality;
Of passing from storm and tempest to an unknown calm;
Of waking and finding you're home.

Your life was love and labour,
Your love for your family true.
You did your best for all of us,
We will always remember you.

God saw you getting tired,
When a cure was not to be,
He closed His arms around you,
And whispered "Come to Me".

Our lives are all so different now,
From what they used to be,
All because you are not here,
To share our company.

Life brings us happiness,
But can quickly turn unkind,
It brings a grief that's hard to bear,
For an end once left behind.

Your resting place we visit,
We place some flowers with care,
But no one knows the heartache,
As we turn and leave you there.

No more than a thought across loved and remembered even less

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
— Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your hand bowed low,
Remember the love that we once shared
— Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone,
It's all a part of the Master's plan
— A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrow in doing good deeds
— Miss me, but let me go.

There comes a time for all of us
When we must say goodbye,
But faith and hope and love and trust
Can never, never die,
Although the curtain falls at last
Is that a cause to grieve?
The future's fairer than the past
If only we believe.
Trust in God's eternal care
So when the Master calls
Let's say that life is still more fair
Although the curtain falls.

Sprung with a million tears,
When God could have spared you,
I had for a few more years,
It does not take a special day,
For us to think of you,
Each Mass we hear, each prayer we say,
I offered up for you,
We cannot bring the old days back,
When we were all together,
The family chain is broken now,
But memories live forever
It was a sudden parting,
Too bitter to forget,
Only those who loved you,
And the ones who will never forget,
May be rest in peace, dear soul,

The Rose Beyond the Wall

Near a shady wall a rose once grew,
Budded and blossomed in God's free light,
Watered and fed by morning dew,
Shielding its sweetness by day and night.

Shall claim of death cause us to grieve,
And make our courage faint and fail?
Nay! Let us faith and hope receive,
The rose still grows beyond the wall.

Scattering fragrance far and wide,
Just as it did in days of yore,
Just as it did on the other side,
Just as it will forevermore.

Road to Eternity

Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road,
To sweet eternity.

We all have different journeys,
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant
to learn some things,
But never meant to stay.
Our destination is a place,
Far greater than we know,
For some, the journey's quicker,
For some, the journey's slow,
But when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace,
Together with the Lord.

and always will do too,
The fact that you're no longer here
will always cause us pain
But you're forever in our hearts
until we meet again.

Listen to my frequent prayers.

Bring me to my destination,

Help me with my understanding,
As the hours pass away.

Take my hand O Blessed Mother,
And once again guide me home.

No why nothing in return.

As we look upon his picture,
Sweet memories we recall,
Of a face so full of wisdom,
And a smile for one and all.
Sweet Jesus take this message,
To our dear father up above,
Tell him how we miss him,
And give him all our love.

Road to Eternity

Life is but a stooping place,
A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road,
To sweet eternity.
We all have different journeys,
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant
To learn some things,
But never meant to stay,
Our destination is a place,
Far greater than we know,
For some, the journey's quicker,
For some, the journey's slow,
But when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace,
Together with the Lord.

"Next to you"

You cannot see or touch me
But I'm standing next to you.

Yet I'm standing next to you.

Now I am content
That my life is worthwhile
Knowing as I passed along the way
I made somebody smile.

When you are walking down the street
And you've got me on your mind
I'm walking in your footsteps
Only half a step behind.

And when you feel the gentle breeze
Or the wind upon your face
That's me giving you a great big hug
Or just a soft embrace.

So please don't be unhappy
Just because I'm out of sight
Remember that I'm with you
Every morning, noon and night.

Prayer to Our Lady of Knock

Our Lady of Knock, Queen of Ireland, you gave hope to your people in a time of distress and comforted them in sorrow.

You have inspired countless pilgrims to pray with confidence in your Divine Son, remembering His promise: "Ask and you shall receive, seek and you shall find".

Help me to remember that we are all pilgrims on the road to Heaven. Fill me with love and concern for my brother and sister in Christ, especially those who live with me.

Comfort me when I am sick or lonely or depressed. Teach me how to take part near more devoutly in the Holy Mass. Give me a greater love of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament.
Pray for me now and at the hour of my death. Amen.

Sarah
Your smiles we miss
Your laughter we treasure
Loving you always Forgetting you never.

Deep into the mountains,
Precious they stay,
The passing of time,
Can take them away.

We hold you close within our hearts,
And there you shall remain,
To walk with us throughout our lives,
Until we meet again.
So rest in peace dear loved one,
And thank for all
you've done,
We pray that God
has given you
the crown you've earned.

What is Dying?

A ship sails and I stand watching till she fades on the horizon and someone at my side says, "She is gone".
Gone where? Come from my sight, that is all.
She is just as large now as when I last saw her. Her diminished size and total loss from my sight is in me, not in her.
And just at the moment when someone at my side says, "She is gone" there are others who are watching her coming over their horizon and other voices take up a glad shout "There she comes!"
That is what dying is. A horizon and just the limit of our sight.
Lift us up, Oh Lord, that we may see further.

So when someone says, "She is gone",
Don't think we're far apart.
For every time you think of me,
I'm right here in your heart.

What is Dying?

At others De go raibh a anam

Fisherman's Prayer

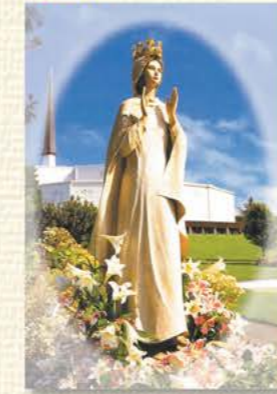

God grant that I may live to fish,
Until my dying day,
And when it comes to my last cast,
I then most humbly pray,
When in the Lord's safe landing net,
I'm peacefully asleep,
That in his mercy I be judged
As big enough to keep.

When tomorrow starts without me,
And I'm not there to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me.

I wish so much you wouldn't cry
The way you did today,
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me,
As much as I love you,
And each time you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too.

But when tomorrow starts without me,
Please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand

And said my place was ready in Heaven far above
And that I'd have to leave behind
All those I dearly love.

So when tomorrow starts without me,

Heaven's Very Special Child

A meeting was held quite far from earth
"It's time again for another birth"
Said the Angels to the Lord above
This special child will need much love
His progress maybe very slow,
Accomplishments he may not show
And he'll require extra care
From the folks he meets down there.
He may not run or laugh or play
His thoughts might seem quite far away
Please Lord find the person who will do this special job for you
They may not realise straight away
The learning role they are asked to play
But with this child sent from above
Comes stronger faith and richer love
And soon they'll know the privilege given their special child so meek and mild is Heaven's very special child.

Just think of me as present
Don't think of me as past
For a Mother's love's a blessing in death it still can last.
Forget your troubles and your worries

Prayer to Our Lady of Knock

Our Lady of Knock, Queen of Ireland, you gave hope to your people in a time of distress and comforted them in sorrow. You have inspired countless pilgrims to pray with confidence to your Divine Son, remembering His promise: "Ask and you shall receive, seek and you shall find". Help me to remember that we are all pilgrims on the road to Heaven. Fill me with love and concern for my brothers and sisters in Christ, especially those who live with me. Comfort me when I am sick or lonely or depressed. Teach me how to take part ever more reverently in the Holy Mass. Give me a greater love of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. Pray for me now and at the hour of my death.
Amen.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me now I'm free, I'm following the path God laid for me. I took his hand when I heard him call, I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day, To laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way, I found that peace at close of day. If my parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joy, A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Ah yes, these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow, My life's been full, I've savoured much, Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch, Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, Don't lengthen it now with undue grief, Lift up your hearts and share with me, God wanted me now, he set me free.

We hold you close within our hearts, And there you shall remain, To walk with us throughout our lives, Until we meet again. So rest in peace dear loved one, And thanks for all you've done, We pray that god has given you, The crown you've truly won.

Along the road of suffering You found a little lane; That took you up to Heaven, And ended all your pain. You may be out of sight, We may be world's apart; but you are always in our prayers, And forever in our hearts.

LV103

Don't remember me with sadness, Don't remember me with tears, Remember all the laughter, We've had throughout the years. Then when the summer sunshine Awakes the flowers in bloom I'll walk that light from Heaven Around the corners of every room. Do the things we did before The same in every way Just whisper a little prayer to me At the dawn of every day. Just think of me as present Don't think of me as past For a father's love's a blessing In death it still can last. Forget your troubles and your worries They're mine forever more I'll watch and care and love you From Heaven's open door. And when your road gets rough and rocky Or you're down and need a crutch Remember I'm right beside you Just an inch too short to touch.

LV104

When God was making Mothers, He must have made a fuss He spent a lot of time on one And gave that one to us. Of all the gifts in life However great or small, To have you as our Mother Was the greatest gift of all. Because you were so special No words could ever say How much we love and miss you Today and every day.

LV105

The Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession, was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence I fly unto thee, O Virgin of Virgins, my Mother, to thee I come; before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy clemency hear and answer me.
Amen.

Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place all my trust in

LV112

May He support us All the day long till the shades lengthen and the evening comes and the busy world is hushed and the fever of life is over and our work is done: then in His mercy may He give us a safe lodging and a holy rest and peace at the last.

LV113

May the god of love and Mercy, Care for our loved one who is gone, And bless with consolation, Those left to carry on.

LV114

They say there is a reason, They say that time will heal, But neither time nor reason, Will change the way we feel. For no-one knows the heartache, That lies behind our smiles, No-one knows how many times, We have broken down and cried. Gone from our home that smiling face, Those cheerful, happy ways, The heart that won so many friends, In bygone, happy days. We want to tell you something, So there won't be any doubt, You're so wonderful to think of, But so hard to be without. We cannot bring the old days back, When we were all together, The family chain is broken now, But memories live forever.

LV106

A smile for all, a heart of gold, The very best this world could hold, Never selfish, always kind, Those are the memories you left behind. Thinking of you is easy, We do it every day, But missing you is a heartache, That never goes away.

LV107

After Glow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one. I'd like to leave an after-glow of smiles when life is done. I'd like to leave an echo, whispering softly down the ways, Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days. I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun, Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

LV108

We sat beside your bedside, Our hearts were crushed and sore; We did our duty to the end, 'Til we could do no more. In tears we watched you sinking, We watched you fade away; And though our hearts were breaking, We knew you could not stay. You left behind some aching hearts, That loved you most sincere; We never shall and never will, Forget you, Father dear.

LV115

God called your name so softly, That only you could hear; And no one heard the footsteps, Of angels drawing near. The golden gates stood open, god saw you needed rest; His garden must be beautiful, He only takes the best.

LV116

Now I am contented That my life it was worthwhile Knowing as I passed along the way I made somebody smile. When you are walking down the street And you've got me on your mind I'm walking in your footsteps Only half a step behind. And when you feel the gentle breeze Or the wind upon your face That's me giving you a great big hug Or just a soft embrace. So please don't be unhappy Just because I'm out of sight Remember that I'm with you Every morning, noon and night.

LV117

Miss Me but let Me go When I come to the end of the road And the sun has set for me I want no rites in a gloom filled room Why cry for a soul set free? Miss me a little, but not too long And not with your head bowed low. Remember the love that we once shared Miss me, but let me go. For this is a journey we all must take And each must go alone. It's all a part of the Master's plan A step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick of heart go to the friends we know And bury your sorrow in doing good deeds Miss me, but let me go.

Short Verses

Your life was love and labour,
Your love for your family true,
You did your best for all of us,
We will always remember you.

God saw you getting tired,
When a cure was not to be,
He closed His arms around you,
And whispered "Come to Me!"

Our lives are all so different now,
From what they used to be,
All because you are not here,
To share our company.

Life brings us happiness,
But can quickly turn unkind,
It brings a grief that's hard to bear,
For loved ones left behind.

Your resting place we visit,
We place some flowers with care,
But no one knows the heartache,
As we turn and leave you there.

LV119

Softly in the morning,
You heard a gentle call,
You took the hand God offered you,
And quietly left us all.

The day you left us father,
Our hearts just broke in two.
The smallest part is still with us,
And the biggest part with you.

For the rest of our lives,
We will miss you father.
Our secret tears still flow.
Oh, how we really loved you,
No one will ever know.

We miss your smile, your joking ways,
We miss the things you used to say.
And when old times we do recall,
It's then we miss you most of all.

You were always there when we needed you,
No task too great or small,
With loving heart and willing hands,
For us you did it all.

Look around your garden Lord,
And when he turns and smiles,
Put your arms around him
And hold him for a while.

LV120

We lost a mother with a heart of gold, how much we miss her can never be told,
She shared our troubles and helped us along,
if we follow her footsteps,
We will never go wrong.

We miss you from your fireside chair,
Your loving smile and gentle air,
Your vacant place no one can fill,
We miss you Mother and always will.

We prayed for a miracle all in vain,
That God would make you well again.
But God knew best, we had to part,
It eased your pain but broke our hearts.

We cannot bring the old days back
When we were all together,
The family chain is broken now,
But memories live forever.

She was a mother so very rare,
Content in her home and always there,
On earth she toiled, in heaven she rests,
God bless you Mother,
you were one of the best.

OPTIONAL REPLACEMENT FOR V2
What she suffered she told but few,
She did not deserve what she went through,
Tired and weary she made no fuss,
But tried so hard to stay with us.

LV138

Until we meet again....

Those special memories of you will always bring a smile
if only we could have you back for just a little while.

Then we could sit and talk again
just like we used to do, you always meant so much to us
and always will do too.

The fact that you're no longer here
will always cause us pain
but you're forever in our hearts
until we meet again.

Missed So Dearly

Missed in the morning
of every day,
Missed in the evening
as light fades away,
Missed in a thousand
and one little ways,
Around every corner
a memory stays.

No one knows the pain we bear,
When we all meet and you're not there,
We talk, we laugh, we play our part,
But behind it all lie broken hearts.

You gave us years of happiness,
Then sorrow came with tears,
You left us lovely memories,
We will treasure through the years.

LV125

Together

Death is nothing at all - I have only slipped away into the next room. Whatever we were to each other, that we are still. Call me by my old familiar name, speak to me in the easy way which you always used.
Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together.
Play, smile, think of me, pray for me. Let my name be the household word that it always was. Let it be spoken without effort. Life means all that it ever meant.
It is the same that it ever was; there is absolutely unbroken continuity. Why should I be out of your mind because I am out of your sight? I am but waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near, just around the corner. All is well. Nothing is past; nothing is lost. One brief moment and all will be as it was before - only better, infinitely happier and forever - we will all be one together with Christ.

LV132

They say that time will heal,
But neither time nor reason,
Will change the way we feel.
For no one knows the heartache,

No one knows how many times,
We've broken down and cried.
We want to tell you something,
So there won't be any doubt,
You're so wonderful to think of,
But so hard to do without.

LV134

God looked around his garden,
And saw an empty space.
Then he looked down here on earth,
And saw your loving face.

He put his arms around you,
And lifted you to rest.
His garden must be beautiful,
Because he only picks the best.

A million times we'll miss you,
A million times we'll cry.
If love could have saved you,
You never would have died.

In life we loved you dearly,
In death we love you still.
In our hearts you hold a special place,
No one could ever fill.

It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you did not go alone,
For part of us went with you,
The day God took you home.

LV136

Beautiful memories
Are wonderful things,
They last till the longest day,
They never wear out,
They never get lost,
And can never be given away.
To some you may be forgotten,
To others a part of the past,
But to us who loved and lost you,
Your memory will always last.

Forever in our hearts...

LV137

You can shed tears that he is gone, or you can smile because he has lived.
You can close your eyes and pray that he'll come back, or you can open your eyes and see all that he has left.

Your heart can be empty
because you can't see him or you can be full of the love you shared.

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday, or you can be happy for tomorrow
because of yesterday.

You can remember him and only that he's gone,
or you can cherish his memory and let it live on.

You can cry and close your mind,
be empty and turn back,
or you can do what he'd want:
smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

SV

If we could only speak to him/her

No matter what we said or did

*Always a smile, instead of a frown,
Always a hand, when one is down,
Always true, thoughtful and kind,
Wonderful memories he/she left behind.*

*It broke my heart to lose you,
But you didn't go alone,
For part of me went with you,

*Peacefully sleeping, resting at last,
His/Her weary trials and troubles past,
In silence he/she suffered,
in patience he/she bore,
