European Days of Jewish Culture & Heritage 2016: United Kingdom

This year's theme will be 'Jewish identity through language and culture', which can be interpreted in so many ways. For example, many synagogues and organisations are arranging talks by speakers about how Yiddish has now infiltrated every day life – for both Jews and non-Jews!

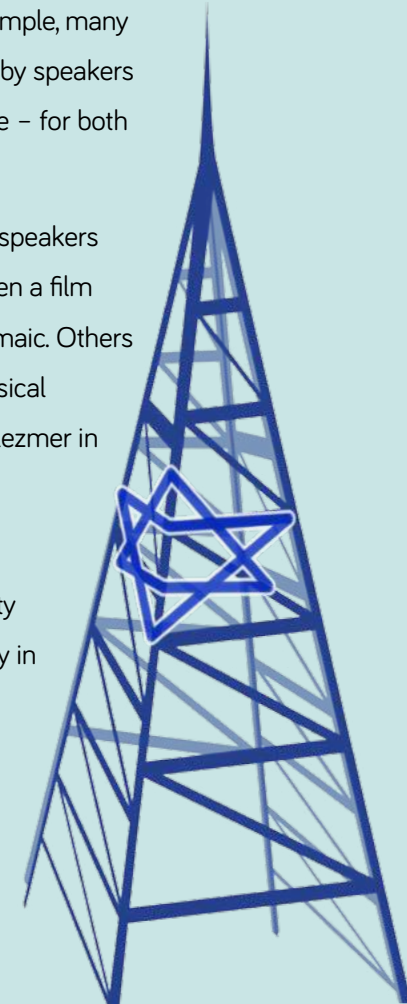

Some are holding talks/musical events by Ladino speakers or singers; some participants might decide to screen a film focusing on language or in Hebrew or even in Aramaic. Others might be interested in holding a Klezmer-style musical evening, in the same vein as the hugely popular 'Klezmer in the Park', which is organised annually by the Jewish Music Institute.

Some are mounting exhibitions for their community on the importance of communication – particularly in current times – through a variety of languages and arts.

In the spirit of interfaith outreach and understanding of Jewish culture, everyone is welcome!

The following have generously sponsored a page in this booklet:

British participation in the European Days of Jewish Culture & Heritage is organised by B'nai B'rith UK. BBUK is part of B'nai B'rith International, which was founded in New York in 1843.

Today, it is one of the largest Jewish volunteer organisations active in humanitarian, human rights, cultural and charitable work in 58 countries, 27 of which (including the UK) are affiliated to B'nai B'rith Europe. Launched in 1996 by the B'nai B'rith Lodge in Strasbourg, the Open Days became pan-European in 2000 and are now under the aegis of the European Association for the Preservation and Promotion of Jewish Culture and Heritage (AEPJ), with the participation of 31 countries.

B'nai B'rith UK would like to acknowledge the contribution of Jewish Heritage UK, members of B'nai B'rith UK, our sponsors and media partner, the Jewish News, for their generous support, as well as our participants who make these Open Days, talks, guided walks and events possible by opening their buildings to the public and/or arranging events.
