

Activity	Likely Hazard	Probability	Severity	Factor	Control
Dry stone walling Strip down walls	Back/shoulder injury Wall may collapse Glass and other objects in wall Cuts & scratches	8	9	10	Warm up exercises Wear steel toe cap boots Wear heavy duty gloves Tetanus up to date First aid training/awareness
Dry stone walling in adverse conditions	Sun burn Dehydration Slippery surface	10	10	10	Apply hi-factor sunscreen at least SPF 15+ every 2 hours Wear large sun protection hat Wear sunglasses Wear clothing with a UVA protection Wear waterproof clothing Wear hi-wicking shirts & vests Avoid working when sun is at its peak Drink plenty of fluids

Injury from poorly maintained tools	Hammer head loose Splinters from chisels/walling rods Eye injury from walling rods & clamps	6	6	8	Check condition of tools prior to use: hammer head secure, mushroom edges to chisels ground out walling rod end covers
Working in groups when using; chisels, picks, mattocks etc also when moving stone Working in public access area's	Flying pieces of stone Injury if hit by stone & tools Eye injury	9	9	10	Wear safety glasses Awareness of colleagues in close vicinity Cordon off working area Wear hi-vis clothing
Assess the situation before moving heavy stone & ask for assistance, being aware of obstacles	Back injury	8	7	8	Request assistance Use back support for heavy lifting. Correct lifting techniques Keep work area clear and free from obstacles
Lack of insurance cover	Possible injury to a third party/damage to property	8	8	9	Covered for Public liability insurance
Awareness of livestock	Possible injury	6	5	8	Awareness of The Country Code

General activity	Clear up when finished, remove any remaining stone as not to cause damage to farm machinery, animals & members of the public	6	6	8	Awareness of The Country Code
Lone worker	Possible injury	8	5	6	Check mobile phone is charged, check reception leave details of where you are working ICI(in case of emergency) number on phone Aware of emergency 112 number