(CNN) — With the world's greatest number of skyscrapers in one city, as well as thousands of buildings over 10 stories, Hong Kong's urban landscape has a way of overpowering visitors.

Sometimes it's easiest just to stand in front of the window of your hotel room and take it all in.

From five-star palaces to youth hostels, presidential suites to rented apartments, you can pretty much be guaranteed views that you'll be posting and sending to friends as soon as you check in.

Here are 14 of the best:

1. Hotel Icon

This unique five-star property is owned by the Hong Kong Polytechnic University and operates as a research and training facility for the School and Hotel of Tourism Management.

Guests come for the sleek Tesla limos, classy club floor and award-winning dining.

But most of all for the intoxicating views from rooms, restaurants and particularly the pool deck and gym.
