

Fusion Media

Bringing big ideas to a big audience

Our Story

If you think marketing agencies are all the same, take a quick look at Fusion Media and you'll discover we are different.

Based in the heart of Kent, we have an experienced team with traditional values and a modern approach to integrated marketing communications – winning numerous industry awards along the way.

We deliver targeted campaigns across both traditional and new media platforms. We help our clients create compelling content, generate game-changing coverage and crucially achieve results that help drive their bottom line.

Working with some of the world's leading brands, Fusion Media provides innovative, inspiring and award winning work.

We are a full service marketing and corporate communications agency and work across all media channels delivering award winning, high quality public relations, marketing, advertising, design, social media, marketing and training, photography, event management, and digital media services to a wide range of local, national and international clients.

Our in-house PR and marketing specialists combine the best journalistic skills with a sound understanding and knowledge of effective marketing and corporate communication; while the agency's in-house design team offers the full range of creative, studio, media planning/ buying, production and account management skills.

The company handles a mix of business-to-business, consumer and public sector clients. Many of them draw upon Fusion Media's expertise in offering fully-integrated campaigns that blend a number of communication methods.

An overriding desire to create and carry out work that achieves clear communication goals, whether it is marketing, branding or sales, corporate or community underpins all that we do. By strengthening your brand identity it can become your most valuable asset.

Our client retention is exceptional, receiving regular referrals.

Our clients span across a range of sectors including corporate and commercial, charity, manufacturing, tourism and public and professional services. Creating work for a diverse range of clients is what we love doing and allows us to showcase our ability.

If you want a marketing partner that is passionate about helping you grow your business then get in touch.

It's what we're best at.

Hatched Projects

CONSULT
So, you have an idea just waiting to be hatched? That's where we come in. The first step is to arrange a consultation and listen carefully to you to find out what you, as the client, are looking for. We need to be able to visualise your ideas and help that dream become a reality. Making any kind of building work, whether it be a completely new build, an extension, a renovation or a swimming pool, can be a large financial and time commitment, that means it's absolutely vital that you choose the right team.

DESIGN
Hatched Projects work with some of the UK's leading architects and designers which ensures that you can see your project laid out before you in a detailed design. All of our projects are designed specifically for each individual customer. If you have your own plans already, then we can work with those too.
One of our team members will then take a detailed survey of the proposed area to include home and lot dimensions, positioning, building setbacks, location of utilities and accessibility to the construction area. Within a few days, our team member will have a fully prepared plan and proposed construction cost for the project organised for you to review.

POOLS
Imagine adding another dimension to your home, creating a space where you and your family can relax, have fun, keep fit and entertain. Hatched Projects are expert swimming pool builders with many years of experience designing and installing pools in homes across the UK and beyond.
No matter whether you're considering an indoor or an outdoor pool, Hatched Projects has helped numerous families to design and build their dream home swimming pool. Our dedicated team of architects, swimming pool designers, engineers, and project managers are just that, so you can take a step back and watch as your vision becomes a reality.

Photography

Many designers sometimes have to over work their creations to compensate for poor quality photography or simply forget how powerful good photography can be.

Brand Development

A brand is not just a logo. It is definitely not just a website or a company brochure. A brand is a voice, a tone, a way of behaving, an attitude, a message.

Print

Print is the representation of your brand in a physical form, from brochures and adverts to stands and clothing. Good quality print may not always be noticed, but poor quality print always is.
