Cartagena de Indias is a symbolic city for Colombia due to the cultural, architectural, historical and sentimentally heritage from the colonial period. It was a pole of the slave commerce, but also it was a core of the independence process from Spain. During the walking tour through the old city, you will discover why is recognize as the Caribbean Pearl and you will be mesmerize not only by its astonishing history, but by its colorful walls and its vivid spots.

The Inquisition Museum is a must, exhibiting different episodes of the country history that gave shape to the national identity and showing some aspects of the Caribbean culture.

Walking Tour of Historical Cartagena

Beyond the historical and colorful center, there are these two important places for the past of the city. Both were strategic points for defending the city and its dwellers from the pirates and the Spanish colonizers. San Felipe is a masterpiece of military architecture, built in 1536 to control the bay and to protect the city from the pirates and corsairs that navigated the seas looking for treasures. From La Popa Monastery you can admire a beautiful landscape from the top of Cartagena, seeing the neighborhood of Boca Grande and its skyscrapers by one side, and by the other side its popular neighborhoods.

City Tour (La Popa Monastery and San Felipe Castle)

Rosario Islands a great place to relaxation, an hour way from Cartagena by boat. There, Gente del Mar hotel or Islabela will receive you and will offer you different services for “Farniente” on the beach while you are taking the famous drink of the Caribbean.

Do not forget to taste fresh grill fish for your lunch.

Escape to Rosario Islands

Cartagena has another face, showing humility but an authentic life from fishing and artisan communities. One of them lives in La Boquilla (15 minutes by car). Moreover, to internalize the culture it's necessary learn about the sound of the drums (required in every tropical rhythm). Because of that, you will take lessons about this musical instrument. Preceding a boat ride in a local canoe. This mode of transport is perfect for a peaceful route where you will admire mangroves, home of diverse species of migratory birds that embellish the orange sky during the sunset. Finally, you will take a cocktail at the beach.

Salsa Lessons

If you want to feel like a local, you must share and touch their passion: Salsa Dance! Salsa is a synonym of Cartagena, and you will find it in the walls and in its hot Caribbean nights. In a local salsa center, full of color and rhythm, we invite you to start or perfectionate your level of this dance. You don't need a couple, you can do it by yourself. Enjoy

Alquimico is a famous rooftop in Cartagena where tourists and locals experiment the real alchemy, enhancing savors in a harmonic sensibility. Start your night taking a cocktail lesson, learning about two house beverages. During this process you will have a short summary about the history of rum, tasting some infusions created in this place.

Cocktail lesson at Alquimico

To begin the party, we have a plan before the nightclub! A Chiva (typical bus) will pick you up in Boca Grande or the Old City and make a trip around the walls and the beach. During this trip you can dance tropical music, take some Cubas Libres, enjoy a dance show that will delight you with Colombian rhythms, taste some fritos (typical street food) and an entertainer will join you to make this trip real party! At the end of the trip you will go to recognize a nightclub.

Chiva Rumbera

The most notable distilled of the Caribbean and from Colombia is, without any doubt, the Rum! With a savor between citric and sweet, you can pair it with a chocolate, giving a harmonic explosion to your mouth. Inside the cava of the Restaurant 1621, you will also make a great discovery about the Colombian chocolate and its different percentage of cacao.
