

Professional Software Training

NedSense NedGraphics helps clients to realize their goals. To do so, we use our expertise and know-how with regards to the textile & apparel market. With over 30 years of experience in the textile industry, NedSense NedGraphics is able to bring integration, tailored for your core business. An important part of our approach entails working in organized teams of different departments. We assist and help to integrate to achieve your goals. NedGraphics trainers are certified to give the training and are always up to date with the latest versions.

Industry: Print Textile and Style Creation

Client Installation and Training includes:

- Introduction into Easy Coloring by NedGraphics Expert.
- Setting up software environment for best results.

Training program contains:

- Imported formats for mappings
- Settings by default to apply to improve display on screen of the application
- Default folders assignment for Photos and Designs Libraries
- Global interface explanations
- How to make a mapping
- Mapping options: size, repeat, rotation,...
- How to create and save a custom album
- How to save a mapped picture
- How to create a slide show from selections
- Printing options

Customer benefits:

- Avoid and reduce sampling of traditional photography.
- Instant viewing of ideas
- Unlimited mapping of fabrics or designs including colorways
- Color Control and Calibration system capabilities
- Increase speed to market
- Quick return on investment
- Generate marketing content
- Sales support tool: generate new sales opportunity
- Easy to use and user friendly interface

