

DR. PAMELA JARRETT JOINS MORTON

Sept. 12, 2018 – TULSA, OKLA. – Pamela Jarrett, D.O., has joined Morton Comprehensive Health Services as a specialist in pediatric care.

“Providing quality care to children for the past 20 years is my passion and calling. I am honored to be joining Morton, and I welcome the opportunity to serve Morton’s children and adolescents,” said Dr. Jarrett.

Dr. Jarrett is a native of Fayetteville, Ark. and moved to Claremore, Okla. after high school with her family. She completed her residency at Tulsa Regional Medical Center in 1999. She received her medical degree from Oklahoma State University College of Osteopathic Medicine after attending Northeastern State University and Rogers State College for her undergraduate studies.

Dr. Jarrett is an adjunct clinical assistant professor of pediatrics at the OSU College of Osteopathic Medicine. Dr. Jarrett has board certifications from the American College of Osteopathic Pediatricians, American Osteopathic Association and the Board of Osteopathic Specialists. In addition to her membership with ACOP and AOA, she is a member of the Oklahoma Osteopathic Association.

“Morton enthusiastically welcomes Dr. Jarrett to its team of highly qualified medical providers at a time when the health and welfare of Oklahoma’s children and families are critical,” said M. Susan Savage, CEO of Morton Comprehensive Health Services.
