" I have had a passion for taking pictures for as long as long as I can remember. I love nothing better than being given a brief and coming up with fantastic creative pictures whether its for a commercial client, wedding or family portrait. In recent years, I have grasped digital filming and we are pleased to add corporate filming and time lapse photography to our range. If you have a need for any photographic or filming requirements for any commercial projects, please do speak to me about this. I work regularly for many corporate clients all over the UK, as shown below."
