

PROFILE - MRS DORIS ABENA NIPAA ANKAMA-ASAMOAH

Mrs Doris Abena Nipaa Ankama-Asamoah attended Ofori Panin Secondary School and Ghana Secondary School for O & A Level's respectively.

She later attended Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and Technology (KNUST), where she graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Art - Textile Designing, from 1984 -1988.

She has a certificate in Textile Extension from the South India Textile Research Association (SITRA) and a certificate in New Communities Movement from Saemaul UNdong Central Training Institute and KOICA - South Korea.

Doris holds a Masters in Business Administration - MBA (Human Resource Management) from the University of Ghana, Legon – 2001.

She is a member of the Institute of Human Resource Practitioners (IHRMP) .

Doris worked in the Ministry of Local Government & Rural Development for 11 years and exited in 2002, as Head of all Women's Training Institutes in the country.

In 2002, Doris joined Cleaning Solutions Ltd (CSL), as the Human Resource Director. Doris supports the CSL team to provide world class services and have won many awards including Ghana Tourist Board awards for Human Resource Development from 2001 to 2011.

Doris joined Joyful Way Incorporated (JWI) at KNUST, in 1984 till 2002. She served in various executive positions including, Treasurer, Publicity Director etc

Doris is married to Kofi. They are marriage counsellors and blessed with six children (3 biological and 3 adopted). Until recently, Doris has supported her husband, as a Minister's spouse at the Presbyterian Church of Ghana, Emmanuel Congregation, Tebibianor, Teshie. Presently, she supports her husband who is the Youth Minister for Accra Ridge Church.