

Teaching of British values at IQRA Academy

At Iqra Academy we promote British values through the teaching of: democracy, the rule of law, individual rights and freedoms, mutual respect and tolerance for everyone irrespective of faiths, beliefs, abilities and gender.

This is reinforced in all areas of the curriculum.

	Foundation Stage	Key stage One	Lower Key stage 2	Upper Key stage 2
Democracy: Voting	Holding votes in class (e.g wet play DVD/ Golden time activities)	In school: Role of school council Holding votes in class (e.g wet play DVD/ Golden time activities) Everyone having a voice.	In England: Voting system: political parties and policies Take part in voting for school councillors.	In school: To hold mock elections to promote fundamental British values and provide pupils with the opportunity to learn how to argue and defend points of view; Take part in voting for school councillors. Local elections and general elections. Towards the end of year: Democracy in contrast to other forms of government in other countries.
Rule of Law	Classroom rules Teaching children to listen to each other and wait before speaking, Listening during story and song time Appropriate behaviour and learning right from wrong	Golden rules Classroom rules Playground rules	Golden rules Classroom rules Playground rules Consequence of breaking rules. Government rules for children.	Golden rules Classroom rules Playground rules Government rules for adults. Comparing rule of law in contrast to other forms of government in other countries.
Individual rights and freedoms	Knowing they have the right to choose their friends Understanding they have an opinion and can share this appropriately	What is a right? What is freedom? What are my rights at home? What are my rights at school? (I have the right to come to school, I have the right to be fed every day, I have the right to walk around safely.	What is a right? What is freedom? Children to establish their own rights. Fair trade	What is a right? What is freedom? Children to establish their own rights. Rights of people in other countries and why they may not have them. Working conditions

Teaching of British values at IQRA Academy

Respect and tolerance for everyone (faiths, beliefs, abilities and gender)	Being polite, saying please and thank you Kindness, helpful, respectful of others Table manners Tolerating others and mutual respect Being part of local community through outings and partnerships with local schools, nurseries etc	What does respect mean? What does tolerance mean? In school respect – environment and people. Respect for property. Basic likes and dislikes. (personal differences) (link to RE Christianity and Islam)	What is a multi-cultural society? What does respect mean? What does tolerance mean? Respect for feelings and emotions of others. Respect for property. In school respect – environment and people. (link to RE Christianity, Islam, Sikhism and Judaism)	(link to RE All religions learnt about) Respect for feelings and emotions of others. Respect for property. Respecting your community environment (cleaning the environment).
---	--	---	--	---

British values to be promoted through, celebrating and recognising significant events, in the United Kingdom, during the year. Eg Jubilee, Patrons day, general elections, Royal family, other religious celebrations, world events