

Trustees

The Shofar Trustees were appointed from the inception of Shofar and together with other members of the Movement for Reform Judaism were responsible for ensuring that Shofar opened on The Sternberg Centre site, offering a Reform Jewish Day care facility that was lacking in the area. The Trustees continue to exercise their fiduciary duties and meet regularly at least 3 times per year as a whole body and oversee the work of the Headteacher.

The Trustees are as follows:

Peter Levy (Chairman) Alyth Synagogue member

Rabbi Josh Levy (Clergy representative) Alyth Reform Synagogue

Rabbi Miriam Berger (Clergy representative) Finchley Reform Synagogue

Mark Harris (member) Alyth Synagogue

Paul Israel (Treasurer) Finchley Reform Synagogue member

Carol Balfe (Safeguarding and Curriculum Trustee) Finchley Reform Synagogue member

Geoffrey Marx (Representative) Movement for Reform Judaism.
