Eligibility to Switch

The decision to switch supplier requires every customer on the estate to agree to switch.

Does every customer connected to the Metered Estate consent to switch?

A customer is only eligible to switch if their contracted exclusivity period has expired.

Is every customer eligible to switch?

Notice of Termination

I hereby give notice of termination of my individual contract or all customers' contracts for the supply of LPG to the above metered estate as provided for by the Competition Commission Order dated 6th May 2009.

I hereby request that my current supplier does not make any further deliveries.
